After 'Years' Of Arguing... Death Came In 'Moments'

Facing a second-degree murder charge in Upland's first homicide case in several years, Patricia Marie McKinney, aided by a public defender, will undergo a preliminary hearing Thursday, Sept. 23, in Upland Justice Court.

The 26-year-old waitress, mother of Shirley Marie, 5, is accused of firing a single, fatal round through the heart of her estranged husband, Gilbert Marston McKinney, 44, following a lengthy family argument the afternoon of Sept. 15.

According to Upland police investigators, the shooting — with a highpowered 7.65mm rifle — took place at close range inside Mrs. McKinney's apartment at 312-A Spencer St. Death was almost instantaneous, they reported.

Shirley Marie was playing outside the hacienda-type apartment when the tragedy occurred. Friends of the family have taken her into protective custody pending the outcome of her mother's court appearances.

Following her booking at the West End Sheriff's Substation, Mrs. McKinney was arraigned Friday before Judge George Imhoff in Upland Justice Court. Bail was set at $27,500 and the woman was remanded to San Bernardino County Jail in lieu of posting same.

Police said the couple had been separated since last spring and an interlocutory decree of divorce was granted in June. They confirmed the wife's statement that quarrels and physical violence had marred the marriage for years.

Mrs. McKinney told officers her husband, a Torrance painter, came to her apartment early in the morning of ill-fated Sept. 15, apparently to visit their daughter and talk about their marital status.

Mrs. McKinney admitted she killed her husband with his weapon, but told detectives she had been a prisoner in her own residence all day and believed her husband intended to murder her with the rifle. The shooting was reported to police by a neighbor at 4:10 p.m.

When police arrived at the scene, McKinney's body was found sprawled on the floor near a sofa. Mrs. McKinney had sought comfort in the apartment of a next-door neighbor.

The small, curly-haired brunette remained calm and unemotional throughout an interrogation session at Upland Police Headquarters, detectives reported. They said she detailed how she had retrieved the rifle, leaning against a far wall, before firing the single bullet.

Detectives said Mrs. McKinney insisted from start to finish that the victim repeatedly had harrassed and threatened her, no matter where they tried to make their home. She indicated that the rifle represented the ultimate threat to her life.

Stone Funeral Home of Upland completed final arrangements for McKinney, whose services and interment were conducted Tuesday in Long Beach.

'Go' Is Council Word For Upland 'A-Go-Go'

SECOND PLACE among 28 municipalities entering special exhibits at the current Los Angeles County Fair was the honor earned by the City of Upland, which moved up from last year's third award. Only Glendora topped Upland's colorful handmade display featuring Jedediah Strong Smith, "California Pathfinder." Tony Malone (left), manager of the sponsoring Chamber of Commerce, accepted silver award from Gene Tessier (center), chairman of the Jaycee committee which built the exhibit, and Jerry Walker, co-chairman.

Like, man, it was all set—for Sunday, Oct. 24, from noon until the fuzz disperse the cats.

The Safaris, the Sun Rays and the Leaves were signed up. Better still, the Crickets and the Birds were all but on the dotted line. It was bound to be a "gasser."

Chief John Wessely, top dog amongst the local fuzz, admitted there might be a few problems, what with limited parking facilities around Upland High School, scene of the blast, but he assured everyone his brass could cope with the situation.

Fully cognizant of the perils as well as pearls, the Chaffey Union High School Board of Trustees okayed the site for the coming — pardon the expression — Youth Music Festival.

It was a community bit. KASK Radio was lining up the talent. The City Park and Recreation Committee — anxious for dough for parks — was coordinating the blueprints. The Lions were ready to roar. The Kiwanians were in the mood. Even the Rotarians were about to unwind.

Then, suddenly, at Tuesday night's meeting of City Council, one of the members, Ronald Rossitter, queried, "Have we ever authorized this?"

Not wanting to become unglued — like, man, on the spot —Councilman James Christensen, chairman of the sponsoring (hopefully) Park and Recreation Committee, responded, "Well, you certainly gave us a rather definite go-ahead."

Confessing that Council had okayed the idea and, at the same time, requested more particulars, Rossitter asked, logically, "Are we in business as a Council to raise money for our parks, especially when risking public funds?"

Hastening to explain, Christensen said his Committee would appreciate $1,000 in municipal funds — "just to get the show on the road." He assured the skepitcal Rossitter that "it's money in the bank—manyfold, we hope."

Elucidating, Christensen said he had held an "enthusiastic" meeting last week of community top-drawers — a bringing together of people in a common cause, "even if we don't make a dime."

"It's a wonderful opportunity for us to make money — for Baldy View Park — without costing the public anything," the Committee chairman said. "At two bucks a throw, the gridiron should be swarming."

"I'm flabbergasted at the enthusiasm," Councilwoman Zella Stone exuded. "Once I had strong doubts, but now I feel it's a good community thing to get us busy and get us to work on."

"It's really no risk," Christensen insisted. "Just compare it to the architectural fees on the Civic Center — which might not go through. In other words, it's a wonderful opportunity to raise money without costing the public anything."

Finally, after praising Christensen for his initiative and determination, Council voted, 4-1, in favor of the City's "go" for the 'go-go" and, by the same count, in favor of the City's gambling $1,000 on the venture —which Christensen hopes will return "almost enough to pay for the $50,000 park." Hawkins, describing himself as the "wet blanket" in the group, objected to the City being placed in such "a precarious position."

Christensen said tickets and placards already are being printed and the whole jamboree will be handled through the City Manager's office. "It's go-go-go," he enthused.

KENDALL DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kendall, 366 Stillman, Apt. C, Upland became the parents of a baby girl at 7:29 p.m. Sept. 17 at San Antonio Community Hospital.

Yes, Virginia, There Will Be College Of West

Responding emphatically to what he termed an "exaggerated" report in an Ontario newspaper, Maynard Book, chairman of the lame-duck Board of Trustees of Upland College, assured THE NEWS Tuesday that newly-incorporated College of the West soon will take over the local campus.

"The financial transaction was delayed a little due to various complications," Book said, "but these things often happen in a large business deal. We learned Monday night that everything is moving real well — it's very encouraging now."

In a Sunday story headlined, "College of West, Where Are You?", the Ontario paper stated no one connected with the incoming institution could be contacted by telephone and no one had yet appeared on campus in an official capacity.

Dwight Bert, a member of the UC Board, said College of the West was supposed to be here Sept. 13, but could not make it because not enough cash had been deposited in escrow to complete the transfer of property.

Thus, switchboard operators at the campus continued to answer, "Upland College,' and there was some speculation of negotiations collapsing. Book allayed fears of such a development with his comments Tuesday.

THE NEWS also called Dr. George Riday, College of the West's dean of men, who said he arrived Monday in Upland, expecting to greet the first influx of "dropout" students. They failed to show up.

"I understand Mrs. Mary Stewart, chairman of our Board, met with Upland College Board members last night (Monday) and worked things out," Riday told THE NEWS. "Some students are waiting to be transported here, so I suppose I will see them soon."

The dean of men said he remains "optimistic" about the college's future, "though I'm also pretty much of a realist." He said he would like to get going so that classes could be started as close to the originally planned starting date of Monday, Sept. 27, as possible.

Dr. Riday explained that Mrs. Stewart's genuine enthusiasm spread to the many teachers and staff members hired by College of the West. A few have quit hurriedly, however, because they couldn't wait indefinitely for their first paychecks, he said.

Commission Denies 'Old English' Bid

The crying need for immediate coordination of efforts between the Architectural Commission, City Council, Civic Center developers and downtown businessmen was aparent this week following a Commission-caused upheaval Sept. 15.

On that date, an application for a building permit to give the northwest corner of 2nd Ave. and C St. an "Old English" look was denied unanimously by members of the architectural group.

As their reason for the rejection, the Commissioners cited the "conflict" with the modern design of the Colonnade Building, just north of the corner site on 2nd. They said it would be a "detriment" to the neighborhood, which will include the modern-design Civic Center in the next block north.

Col. James Marr, the applicant, said he preferred the "Old English" motif to any contemporary design. Furthermore, he said two of his proposed tenants would bow out as a result of the Commission's decision.

Marr seemed somewhat stunned by the Commission ruling inasmuch as Council had praised Marr's faith in the future of the downtown area after he had displayed his preliminary plans. He also had been encouraged by the success of the recently-completed "Old English"-style Modern Decorators building two blocks south on 2nd.

According to the applicant, construction on the corner property was to have begun Friday, with completion scheduled in December. He said he was unsure about spending "another $300 to $400 to have more plans prepared only to have them turned down as well."

Marr said, "There is nothing else for me to do but have the Architectural Commission draw the plans to their particular taste and let me see if I like them."

School Board Denies WEUF

The Upland School District Board of Trustees agreed unanimously at its Sept. 14 meeting to deny a request by the West End United Fund for collection of contributions within the school system.

Recognizing the United Fund's great benefit to the community and expressing its sincere hope for a successful fall campaign in the West End, the Board decided it was "best not to solicit at the elementary level."

The Chaffey Union High School District Trustees previously had voted in favor of a one-day, student-run drive in the area's four high schools.

Planners Get 3-2 Confidence Vote

It should have been a tip-off Tuesday night when Lee Travers, administrative assistant to the City Manager, observed, "The Planning Commission is not wholly in accord" — and Mayor Max Hawkins responded, "They're wholly in discord."

But Council paid no attention to the warning, deciding instead to try and decide if it liked or disliked the Commission's recent unanimous ruling that it should remain the final judge in variance matters, conditioned only by direct appeals to Council.

Speaking as only a former Commission member can speak, Councilwoman Zella Stone said, "The Planning Commission's argument is quite valid. By handling variances, it relieves us of much detail."

"I don't agree,' commented Councilman Ronald Rossitter. "The Council has got to have the final responsibility in these matters."

"I disagree with you," interjected the mayor, adding, "The Planning Commission can handle them just as well as we can."

Whereupon Councilman James Christensen said, "If they're capable, let them do it . . . it's a matter of judgment . . . let's not set ourselves as rulers. I think we should give them a vote of confidence."

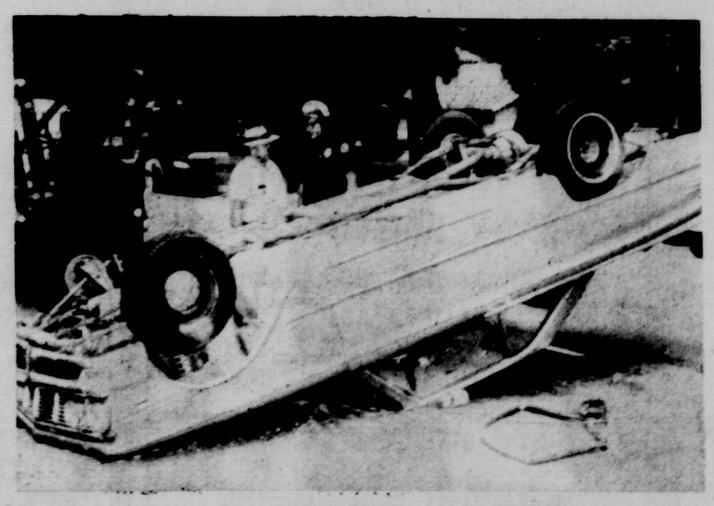

. Council did just that, voting 3-2 in support of a Christensen motion to uphold the Commission's final say in variances. Hawkins and Mrs. Stone backed the motion sponsor, with Councilman George Gibson—who sought a difference between "judgment and administration" — siding with Rossitter.

Subsequently, the Councilmen got together as Christensen moved that City Atty. Donald Maroney draw up a resolution in support of Chino and Montclair in their efforts to obtain emergency hospital facilities for the needy in the West End (see earlier story, page).

"I agree," Rossitter stated. "Let's look into the matter and see if this end of the County is adequately served. I think Supervisor Daniel Mikesell should come and tell us what the County is doing in this regard."

During regular session, Council unanimously named Realtor Rosalie Kamansky to replace Ed Novell as a member of the still-controversial Architectural Commission. And Ernest Olson was reappointed unanimously to the Parking Place Commission.

Council then went into executive session to discuss personnel matters and, after due deliberation, reported that it had accepted — "with the utmost regret" — the resignation of City Clerk Bonita Hunt.

Cucamonga CofC Pushes Banquet

Tickets will be available at the door of the Magic Lamp Inn when the Cucamonga Chamber of Commerce holds its promising "Bring A New Member" Banquet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 23.

Purpose of the special start-of-autumn dinner meeting is "to promote a better community by working together" and, as a result, each Chamber member has been asked to escort a prospective new member — no matter whether he's a Cucamonga newcomer, old-timer, friend or neighbor.

According to Bob Plamandon, coordinator for the event, "The ever-increasing population and expansion of industry in this area makes it mandatory that the Chamber increase its manpower and keep the community where it should be —moving ahead."

Eddie Rankin of Sun City, an organizer of the original search and rescue squad for San Bernardino and Riverside Counties, will appear as guest speaker to tell of the history and lore of Cucamonga area mountains. He is rated an expert on the Angeles range and the San Bernardino Mountains.

Bill Reckert, Chamber secretary, said cost of the dinner is $3.50 per person. The banquet will serve as the kickoff for an extensive membership drive, he added.

Mayor Hawkins and Mrs. Hunt will screen the applicants and choose the three most qualified to appear before Council Oct. 5 for a final selection.

Water Vacancy Fluid

The Board of Directors of San Antonio Water Co. met Monday, discussed "routine business" and "never mentioned" the Board vacancy created Aug. 18 by the death of 75-year-old Richard G. Manley.

"Perhaps they decided to postpone any consideration of a replacement out of courtesy to the deceased member," a company spokesman told THE NEWS.

It had been speculated by various community leaders, and urged editorially by this newspaper, that the Board appoint a member of City Council to fill Manley's unexpired term.

Some municipal officials have felt and stated that the City deserves a second seat on the grower-dominated seven-member Board because it now owns about 25 per cent of the company's stock.

However, not even the City's lone member — vacationing City Mgr. Elwin Alder — was on hand for Monday's meeting, so the City's position in the power struggle could not be restated, even if Alder had been instructed to do so, which he apparently wasn't.

Shortly after Manley's death, THE NEWS asked Peter Weiland, Board president, what action might be forthcoming, perhaps at Monday's meeting.

He replied, "Nothing has been done about the situation. As a matter of fact, we may do nothing. We don't have to fill the vacancy."

Following Monday's session, a spokesman close to the water company advised THE NEWS, "Your editorials don't help the situation. The Board doesn't want to be forced into anything."

Bonita Hunt Quits Position As City Clerk

Bonita Hunt, Upland's City Clerk for the past year and a half, surprised Council members and almost everyone else Tuesday night when she submitted her resignation, hopefully effective Oct. 15 (see companion story).

The ever-smiling, efficient handler of municipal affairs, endorsed enthusiastically by THE NEWS at election-time in April 1964, gave "personal reasons" for her rather sudden decision to give up the City Clerk's job.

BONITA HUNT

Mrs. Hunt submitted an official statement to THE NEWS which began, "How do I feel about leaving my position as City Clerk of Upland?"

Then she went on to answer her own question:

"I am most regretful about leaving office before my term is finished. When I ran for this office and was given a most gratifying vote of confidence by the people, I had no other thought but to complete the four-year term.

"Life moves along and is ever changing, and I find that I shall be moving away from Upland in the near future.

"It has been a high privilege to have served as City Clerk durtag this time of rapid growth when so many chal-

'SING-A-LONG' WITH FRANCIS AVE.

Return Of A Block Party

"What ever happened to the neighborhood block party?" asked Danny Thomas on a recent television broadcast. He would have realized just how much they are still alive had he attended the fourth annual Labor Day Block Party celebrated by residents of Francis Ave. in Upland.

Mrs. Richard Houghland and Mrs. Ron Hanson headed the committee to get plans underway for the neighborhood social. Invitations went to all residents of Francis Ave. and ex-residents were also notified.

The fun-filled day began at 11 a.m. with a baseball game and a balloon toss at the adjoining Sierra Vista School grounds under the direction of Ron Hanson and Chuck Rowland.

Rain or shine, sleet or hail—nothing dampened the spirits of this group. The plans for the rest of the afternoon were moved indoors and at 4:30 all hands were on deck to enjoy a smorgasbord picnic highlighted by such dishes as fried and barbecued chicken, Lasagne Napoli, Chinese Rice, a variety of casseroles, salads, relishes, rolls and delicious desserts.

The neighborhood children then entertained with a talent show which had been organized by Miss Gloria Hamblin and Miss Beverly Rodgers.

The day's events closed with an 'ole fashion "sing-a-long" around an open fire pit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Harris. This same activity, a year ago, played an important part in forming the Francis Avenue Singers. Residents who were interested in singing met together after Labor Day and formed a group which has entertained at local club functions in the West End and Pomona Valley Areas.

Neighbors in attendance at the block party were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rowland, Michael and Wendy; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gonzalez, Alex, Tomas, and Carlos; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Van Lieu, James, Debra, and Keith; Dr. and Mrs. Merle Cox, Penny, Michael, and Casey; Mrs. Margaret Breeding and daughter Margaret; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brooks, Tanya and John; Dr. and Mrs. Merriman Hamblin, Diana and Gloria; Rev. and Mrs. Julian Rhodes and guests Mrs. M. Bradley and Sheila Beckham of Fontana; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Munz, Andrew, Margaret, Paula, Laura and Gennine Ruffino; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hanson, Sheryl, Robert, Steven and guests Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hanson; Mr. and Mrs. Garland Rodgers, Beverly and Kent; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Houghland, Debra, David, and Diane; Mr. and Mrs. Menno Lichti, Keith and Wade.

Among the new members attending from the West End were Mrs. Samuel Kobrinsky, Mrs. Simon Klitenic, Mrs. James Phelps, Mrs. Reardon Dight, and Mrs. Robert McBurney. This is the time of the year when the old and new members have an opportunity to become acquainted and the president Mrs. Gibson, told of the plans for the new year along with the responsibility the members accept to the various fund raising projects, the largest of which is the Medical Loan Fund in which the Auxiliary gives scholarships and extends loans to those who plan on making a career in medicine.

Mrs. Gibson, introduced Mrs. Gerad Rawle who told the schedules for the bowling team. There will be 40 bowlers in the West End and the dues they pay go the AMA-ERF (American Medical Association Educational and Research Fund).

Last year, two rooter buses carried Highlanders to away games. This year there will be three buses.

The subject of school spirit is brought up at this time of year. Nearly every Highlander feels a certain amount of pride when he sees Upland's traditions. One thousand yards of Tartan is available to UHS this year.

In order to fulfill all of its projects, UHS needs the help of the community. There is only one high school in Upland. It isn't asking too much for Upland to support this school.

Upland High Director of Student Activities Bill Wolfe urges the community to support the athletic teams, buy Booster Club cards, support the band and drill team, the drama department, all the club sales and money-raising activities, and the AFS White Tag Sale.

In other words, let everyone know that there is a high school in Upland, and that everyone is proud of it.

After Fifties Lunch, Sing

The Fun After Fifty Senior Citizens Club of Upland met for their regular monthly Pot Luck at 12 noon Sept. 1 at Atwood Kitchen in Memorial Park.

After the opening ceremonies led by Chris Hooker, everyone lined up for the plentious food. At 1 p.m. the meeting was called to order, reports were made, Treasurer's Report, sick report by Pearl Knittel, and Glen Towers reported on plans for a year full of interesting trips.

He also announced that all seats are gone for the trip to the new West Covina Carousel Theatre in September.

Those present with birthdays in September were serenaded with the Happy Birthday Song. Visitors, Mrs. Mamie Jones and Frances Cover were introduced, also the new members, Mrs. Lizabeth Stark, Della Lehman, Nora R. McCain and Alice G. Wirl.

Tickets were given out for a drawing for a "Solid Gold Cadillac" and a "Platinum Packard" which turned out to be outsized lollipops. Mrs. Ruth Bancroft read a poem and gave a reading. Mrs. Bancroft also wishes to remind everyone interested in the square dancing class that it meets every Wednesday night at 7:15 p.m. sharp!

Local Dancers Will Perform At L.A. Fair

The Fair opened with the "Accent on Action" Sept. 17 for 17 fun-filled days.

Help Others

The Upland Chapter of the American National Red Cross appealed to the people this week to be generous in their gifts to causes supported by the United Fund Drive which is now under way.

J. F. Grass, Jr., Chairman of the Chapter, and Charles Milhiser, president of the West End United Fund, said that the need for generous support has been emphasized by the hardships, to people in our sister states of Florida and Louisiana, suffered from Hurricane Betsy, and the problems of our men in service and their families created by the crisis in Viet Nam.

Both leaders asked the public to help put the United Fund over the top in achieving goals and in this way assure the Red Cross of obtaining its own goals. In addition, the people are asked to be generous in giving voluntary extra contributions to the Red Cross to assist the National Red Cross in meeting expenses that already exceed this year's disaster budget of $8,000,000.

UPLAND 'VISITORS' HIROSHI TANAKA AND MAXINE CALWAY

AFS Students Fair-Bound

Maxine Calway and Hiroshi Tanaka of Upland will be among the more than 200 foreign students who will be guests of the Los Angeles County Fair in Pomona Thursday, Sept. 30.

The students, representing 50 different countries, are studying in Southern California with American Field Service student scholarships.

Born in Auckland, New Zealand, Maxine is presently living with foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spegel, 1353 Ukiah Way, while attending Upland High School.

Born in Tokyo, Japan, Hiroshi is presently living with foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Schneider, 2534 Mountain Dr., while attending Upland High School. Both students are sponsored by the Upland Chapter of the American Field Service.

Plans for the day's program include a tram tour of the 487-acre fairgrounds, visits to the exhibits and a picnic at 6 p.m. on Picnic Hill. The latter is sponsored by the Pomona Chapter of the American Field Service.

More than a million and a quarter visitors are expected during the 17-day run of the Fair, Sept. 17-Oct. 3. "Accent on Action" is the theme for the 38th annual exposition.

Eight UHS Seniors Among Semifinalists For 1965-66 Merit Scholarships

Principal Thomas Glasheen announced Wednesday that eight seniors at Upland High School have been named semifinalists in the 1965-66 Merit Scholarship competition.

The students cited for their high achievement are Janet Fairchild, Kenneth Koford, Greg Leo, Mary Ann Mariner, John Renbarger, Sumter Tavers, Kenneth Whitten and Robert Wood.

They are among the highest-scoring students in the State of California on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, administered last March in over 17,600 schools nationwide. More than 14,000 semifinalists were appointed across the country.

To become finalists, the students must substantiate their qualifying test performance on a second examination examination, submit recommendations by their schools and fulfill routine requirements. All Merit Scholars for 1966 then will be selected from the finalist group.

"Much of our future leadership will come from these young people," said John M. Stalnaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corp. "Semifinalists are representative of our country's most intellectually able young people.

"In honoring them, we should remember that others have contributed significantly to their success by encouraging the characteristics which produce high achievement, but also to their families, their teachers and their communities."

To increase their opportunities for financial assistance if they need it, NMSC sends the names of semifinalists to all regionally accredited colleges and universities and to other scholarship-granting agencies and sources of financial aid. Studies show that about half of the semifinalists in former years have obtained financial aid from sources other than the Merit Program.

At least 97 per cent of past semifinalists have become finalists. Each finalist receives a Certificate of Merit in recognition of his outstanding performance in the program.

Finalists are eligible for the scholarships sponsored by NMSC and over 280 corporations, foundations, colleges, unions, trusts, professional associations, other organizations and individuals.

Names of the Merit Scholars chosen from among the finalists will be announced about April 27, 1966. The exact number will depend on the extent of sponsor support. In 1965, over 2,000 Merit Scholarships were awarded.

High school grades, creative accomplishments, leadership qualities, extracurricular activities and school citizenship of the students are evaluated, along with test scores, in selecting Merit Scholars. Winners of sponsored awards also meet sponsor criteria.

Each Merit Scholarship is a four-year award covering the undergraduate college years. The winner's stipend is tailored to his need, up to a maximum of $6,000 for the four years in most cases.

For the student already financially able to attend the college of his choice, the award is $400 for the four own colleges and courses of study.

In many cases, the colleges attended by Merit Scholars also receive supplementary grants accompanying the scholarships.

More than 1,000 students won Merit Scholarships in the first decade of the program, which was founded in 1955 with grants from the Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation of New York. About $42 million in financial assistance to Merit Scholars and their colleges has been expended or committed through the program.

'Do-Or-Die' USC Meeting Called For September 29

Merchants in Upland Shopping Center have been asked to attend a meeting at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 29, at the City Hall to determine the fate of their organization.

Formation of a new Board and new officers is expected to be taken up at the Sept. 29 meeting, or abandonment of the whole merchant concept is slated.

Chamber Mgr. Tony Malone was asked to organize the meeting by the Board of Directors which failed to produce a quorum again Monday noon.

Only two members of the seven-man Board showed up for the meeting. Present were Roger Olson and Barbara Vallon.

In other action taken Monday, Ralph Hanes of THE NEWS and Malone put into action a Promotion Committee which outlined the year-end schedule for USC.

Interested merchants are being asked to join the Committee in its work on an October promotion and for the Christmas season.

The Upland High School Band is slated to march Friday, Dec. 3, through the downtown area, as part of the Christmas opening.

New Year Services At Temple Sholom

The High Holy Day season at Temple Sholom began with the traditional service at midnight Saturday. This service of Selichos, which precedes the New Year celebration, is a prayer for atonement.

Temple Sholom opens its gates for the entire Jewish community of Ontario and the neighboring communities. Even non-members may call the Temple office for tickets and arrangements have been made to accommodate as many as possible. A special group of Jewish students from the neighboring colleges have been invited.

Jewish New Year begins Sunday night, Sept. 26, with a special prayer for peace. Services will start at 8:15 p.m.

The New Year will be observed for two days, with special services in the mornings at 9 and in the evening at 8:15.

Rabbi David Haymovitz will conduct the services and will be assisted by Cantor Sol Weisel and the Temple Sholom Choir, directed by Paul Duchon. The highlight of the services on both days of the New Year will be blowing of the Shofar (Ram's Horn).

A special address to welcome the people of the community, guests, new members of the congregation and the Jewish students will precede the services.

The blowing of the Shofar, which is traditional on the Jewish New Year, will take place at 10:30 a.m. on both days.

AL Braves' 'Combo Cards' Save Wampum

Gus Rischer, director of student activities, said that the combination card is offered for the first time this year. It is sold for $8.50 and includes a $4.50 ASB card and the Sisunga, ALHS yearbook ($6, when purchased separately). The savings on the wholesale purchase is $1.50.

Rischer said he was surprised to discover that, on the first day of school and the first day the bargain was offered, 40 "combo cards" were sold. The sales will continue until Friday, Oct. 15.

Students who purchase ASB cards (or "combo cards") purchase a share in sports, drama productions, the yearbook, the school newspaper, dances, intramurals and school awards. Besides supporting these activities, card holders are given discount prices on admission to some school events, and free admission to others.

The ALHS student council is conducting a sales campaign to acquaint all students with the advantages of the purchase of the "combo card" before the deadline.

Supervisors Weighing Request

County-Paid Medical Services Considered West End 'Must'

SAN BERNARDINO (CNS) —Some emergency medical services will have to be provided eventually in the West End, at County expense, but it will mean a similar venture for Victorville or Barstow, it was agreed Monday by the County Board of Supervisors.

The Board had on its agenda a request from the City of Montclair, signed by City Mgr. Michael A. Graziano, asking for appointment of a committee to study the question. A previous letter had been sent by Ruben Ayala, mayor of Chino.

The committee proposed would be made up of Supervisors Daniel D. Mikesell and Paul J. Young, who represent the West End, and the mayors of Chino, Upland, Montclair and Ontario.

The letter said, "The lack of such a facility in the West End, where people can receive emergency care regardless of ability to pay, is a serious matter."

Mikesell said: "This is a pretty big picture, because other communities have similar problems. Victorville and Barstow will need something, so I hope we are not expected to go on all of these at one time."

He added that any committee formed should include representatives of unincorporated areas as well as the mayors.

Supervisors then voted to ask the city officials for more information at their City-County Coordinating Council meeting Wednesday, Oct. 6. They also indicated they would bring up the question of fitting such emergency medical facilities into the plan for out-patient clinics in the mental health program to be financed with State-Federal aid or under the State's Short-Doyle program.

Such out-patient services have been proposed for the West End and for Victorville or Barstow, to serve desert residents.

Construction Of 91 Area Miles Under Way As National Highway Week Is Observed

The week of Sept. 19-25 is being observed throughout the nation as National Highway Week.

Observances are highlighting the theme "Better Highways Now — Save Time, Lives, and Money."

This is amply demonstrated in California, which is presently engaged in a freeway master plan program of unparalleled proportions, and where the ratio of accident and fatality rates is a fraction of the national average.

The American Association of State Highway Officials (AASHO) is co-ordinating National Highway Week through its member highway departments. Co-operating organizations include the Transportation Agency, State of California; the State Chamber of Commerce; the Automobile Club of Southern California; Californians for Modern Highways; and various other highway-oriented groups.

In the area served by the Division of Highways' San Bernardino office (San Bernardino County and western Riverside County), 1,400 miles of freeway and expressway are planned to be in operation by the year 1980 at a total cost of $800,000,000. At the present time, contracts covering 91 miles of construction with a value of nearly $40,000,000 are under way.

Two hundred and sixty-eight miles of freeway in this area are currently in operation. Nearly 50 miles of Interstate freeway are under construction at the present time. Planned Interstate mileage will account for 424 miles of full freeway by 1972.

When the Board of Supervisors recently adopted a proclamation for National Highway Week, its 2nd District representative, Daniel Mikesell, stated:

"We have joined various cities in recognizing the important job of our State Highway Commission and Highway Department in performing such a large task in building modern highways for our public.

"The County Board of Supervisors would like to stress the importance of modern highways and freeways in the elimination of accidents and the saving of time and money to the motoring public. It is with these achievements that the motoring public can now move on our roadways in orderly fashion."

Off Preseason Test With Sierra Vista, Highlanders Look Set For Azusa Opener

By PAUL MORGAN

Last Saturday, Highlander Field was the scene of a preseason scrimmage between the Upland Highlanders and the Sierra Vista Dons of Baldwin Park.

The clash revealed the Don defense as an unequal match for the powerful Upland offensive machine.

Behind the talented signal-calling of three-year veteran Don Wilcox, the Highlanders were able to supplement a good ground attack with a deadly aerial game. Wilcox connected on long passing gains to flanker Jim Smith and end Bill Gates almost at will.

Halfback Tom Shoji proved too elusive for the opposition as he romped for several long gains off tackle. Hard-running junior Pat Quinn also demonstrated his brokenfield ability by leaving a host of gasping defenders in his wake after crashing through the line for several long gains.

The Highland defense was equally as effective as its offense. The defensive unit stopped the Dons again and again on critical third and fourth down plays.

Tackles Jerry Vogt and Allen Jacobcic quickly dowsed any Sierra Vista hopes of an effective running game by continually dumping Don ball carriers at the line of scrimmage.

Linebacker Bill Beck snatched a Sierra Vista pass early in the scrimmage and ran to the 10-yard line before fumbling, allowing the Dons to regain possession.

No official score was kept, but the small crowd saw the Highlanders cross the Baldwin Park School's goal four times. The Dons barely passed the 50-yard line once and never serious threatened the Upland defense.

The Green and White was plagued with penalties throughout the contest. Seven clipping penalties and numerous offsides marred the Uplanders' day.

The Upland camp emerged from the test with no major injuries. The team appeared in good condition and ready for its meeting Friday, Sept. 24, with the Azusa Aztecs in Azusa.

Coach Jack Frost seemed satisfied with his gridders' showing, but did not hesitate in pointing out that Friday's foe will not be such an easy match as Sierra Vista.

Braves Of Alta Loma Seek Revenge At Expense Of Norte Vista Braves

By W. T. MATHIS

The Alta Loma Braves' varsity football team kick off the 1965 season at 8 p.m. Friday, Sept. 24, against the Norte Vista Braves in Riverside.

Alta Loma hopes to avenge last year's non-league loss to Norte Vista, 13-12.

Norte Vista runs from an I-formation and has a strong passing attack which may give the Braves fits.

The AL defensive secondary still has a few leaky spots in it from last year. The Braves must patch up the defense if they hope to have a winning season.

The Braves begin their first-ever season under Head Coach Forrest Anderson. Coach Anderson has competent assistants in Harley Lovitt (backfield) and Bob Mulligan (line).

Running from both a slot-T and a straight-T, the Braves hope to improve on last years 3-6 record. Alta Loma's main asset is its line, with Ron Rasmussen, transfer Tom Tomkins and Ron Rempel being the main stalwarts.

With passing as a strong point of Bentley's, ends Doug Watford, Joe Pavsek and slotback Thad Mathis form a strong triangle of receivers.

The Braves' running backs are small but quick. Bucky Egge and Mike McCabe are the scat backs with Dennis Watford just coming off the injured list and transfer Marty Kolar providing assistance when needed.

'A Banner Year' Ahead For UHS Booster Club

With Upland High School's 1965 grid opener just hours away, leaders of the Upland High Booster Club reported this week that membership efforts to date indicate "a banner year" for the organization.

The club held its first fall meeting last week in the teachers' lounge at UHS and learned from William E. Walk Jr., president, that a minimum goal of 500 sold memberships should be realized before the first game in Azusa.

James Smith, ways and means chairman, reported that over $1,100 worth of ads have been sold by club solicitors. As a result, according to Bill Wolfe, director of student activities, a 12-page football program will be printed — "better than ever before."

Rex Wignall, having made contact with the UHS teachers, announced that the staff is 100 per cent behind the school's many athletes for 1965-66.

And Mrs. Fred W. Dischinger, the club's publicity chairman, reported that contacts made with Upland's service organizations by spirited UHS yell-and-song leaders had produced "marvelous membership results."

In addition to Board members at the initial meeting, liaison members representing different sports were on hand. Jerry Bell, athletic director, was present with Jack Frost, football; Jerry Kerr, basketball; Herb Christian, baseball; Bob Brooks, water polo; and Paul White, cross country.

Frost announced that club members will be welcome to view a filmed re-run of each football game at 7 p.m. Mondays in the audio-visual room at UHS.

Booster Les Galitz said his committee is ready for "a tremendous football program this fall." Club members will have special parking privileges at the stadium, plus a roped-off area for seating.

The club theme, "Boosting and Boasting," will continue throughout the season and club badges will be on sale at the gate at each home contest, according to Galitz. Memberships are priced at $2 apiece, with proceeds going to purchase equipment for needy participants.

Mrs. Don Shattuck reminded members that the Highlanders' first water polo match of the year — against Long Beach Poly — will be held Saturday, Sept. 25, at UHS.

Walk presented plaques for outstanding club service to Vern Orum and Wignall, past presidents.

District Legion Auxiliary Pats Back, Plans Ahead

The first regular business meeting of the fiscal year 1965-66 of the 25th District American Legion Auxiliary was held recently at the Yucaipa Grange Hall with the Yucaipa Unit acting as hostess. Mrs. W. D. Owens, president, was in charge.

Guests included Mrs. Everett Gillett of District 18 and Pomona Unit. State representatives presented were Mrs. Arthur Novelli, Ontario Unit 112, State Hospital chairman and Mrs. Floyd Walker, Yucaipa Unit, State Hospital Deputy, both for Patton State Hospital.

The membership theme for the State of California is music titled "Keyser's Keys" for Mrs. Harry Keyser, State president, and a member of the 25th District American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Meryl Hansen, Bloomington, announced that the theme they would be using is "Appeal for Lucille" for Mrs. Owens who is a member of their Unit. Dues are to be paid by Nov. 12 to receive an early bird citation, according to Mrs. Joseph Monduck, first vice president and membership chairman.

Mrs. Harold Roossien, district press chairman, Ontario Unit 112, made a plea to all Units for press clippings for the district president's book and Mrs. Catherine Matthews also of the Ontario Unit announced that the district past presidents would arrange for a party in honor of the Girl State representatives of the 21st and 25th districts.

Gifts which are to be sent to the VA Hospitals designated to the district must be sent by Nov. 1 rather than Oct. 1 as previously announced. Each gift must be unwrapped and no less than $3 value. Mrs. Walker is collecting small boxes suitable for the Patton hospital gift shop for patients and larger boxes are requested for the American Legion Auxiliary Gift Shop for families of Veteran patients.

Mrs. Novelli announced an orientation and indoctrination course which will be held in October at Patton hospital with Mrs. Fred Keene, State rehabilitation chairman, giving the American Legion Auxiliary portion of the course. The course will begin at 9:30 a.m. and conclude with a tour of Units and some of the business section of the hospital.

Mrs. Edward Fields, Upland Unit 73, and Junior Past district president presented State awards for membership to Upland, Colton, Fred MacDougall, Bloomington, Yucaipa, Big Bear Lake, DeVore, Yucca Valley, Guy Winton Morris, Richard O. Reed, Yarmo and San Bernardino Units. Redlands, Leo Collins and Rialto Units were presented with National membership citations and those over 10 per cent gain were DeVore, Fontana, Fred MacDougall, Big Bear Lake, Yermo and Upland and received additional citations.

Mrs. Matthews was presented with a State citation for the largest scholarship donation by the past presidents parley and Mrs. Angeline Wilson of Yucaipa and Mrs. Walker were awarded certificates for 100 per cent reports in education and scholarship and rehabilitation. Mrs. Sherman Lansdale will receive a citation for the most outstanding education and scholarship program by the Ontario Unit which also entitled Ontario Unit to the Ethel Hearst Trophy.

Two National awards were received by the 25th district. San Bernardino Unit 14 received a monetary award and citation for the civil defense program. Mrs. Roy Morgan, past district Civil Defense chairman, was escorted to the podium by Mrs. Novelli and Mrs. Sugar and advised of the honor as a surprise to her and gave a short talk on the program and encouraged every Unit to continue in their work in civil defense. Mrs. Lonnie White, Colton Unit, was also awarded a National certificate for meritorious assistance in an outstanding legislative program during the past fiscal year.

William Tucker, commander of the Catholic War Veterans of the United States of America Post No. 1820, San Gabriel Valley, talked to the gathering regarding the recruitment of the youth of America to the Du Bois Clubs of America. This is a known communistic organization which was formed in June 1964 in San Francisco, led by young Communists. According to J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, top Communist Party leaders decided to start the group as early as October 1963, in order to recruit young people into the Communist Party and to spread the Communist Party line. Archie Brown attended the founding convention. He is an admitted Communist and has run for office in California as a Communist. Parents and all adults are urged to know the organizations in which their youngsters are interested and members.

The Du Bois Clubs of America are nothing more than a new front of the Communist Party, a new propaganda tool of the atheistic, totalitarian system dedicated to "Burying" you, the free America. This group has not denied this essential truth although they have denounced the charges as 'red-Baiting" advised Tucker.

Mrs. Al Olcovich, Patton party chairman, announced that the annual barbeque held in August for Veteran patients was a huge success and Olcovich, Patton Hospital chairman for the 25th American Legion Posts, after being presented to the Auxiliary thanked all those who have participated in the past and announced that the annual Christmas party will be held Dec. 17 at 7:30 p.m. in the Patton Auditorium. He urged all members to assist in this large undertaking.

Mrs. Fields was presented a history book which was compiled by Mrs. Monduck, historian for 1964-65.

Escorted to the podium by Mrs. Novelli and Mrs. Sugar was Harold Myers, commander of the 25th District Legion, who welcomed the Auxiliary and expressed his willingness to cooperate to the fullest after which Mrs. Owens was conducted and presented to the Post members and also gave a short welcoming address and stated her individual theme this year is "The More We Get Together."

Announcements included a district school of instruction which will be conducted by several State chairmen, headed by Mrs. Keyser at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 11 in the San Bernardino Legion clubhouse. All Unit chairmen are expected to attend this very important and informative program. Presidents should make a special effort to have officers attend also in order to receive all new material for the coming year.

The next 25th District meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held in Adelanto at the Legion clubhouse, at 10 a.m. Oct. 10 with the Adelanto Unit and Post as host and hostess.

JUVENILE COUNSELING is one of the foremost daily tasks of Kenneth Bromage, longtime associate of the County Probation Department who will lecture Monday evening on "What the World Demands of the Adolescent." First of four-part series, sponsored by the West End Mental Health Association, will be offered at 7:30 p.m. in the Upland High School Library.

Sponsored By WEMHA

'Demands' On Adolescents Kicks Off Lecture Series

"What the World Demands of the Adolescent" will be the subject of the first lecture in a series of four being sponsored by the West End Mental Hygiene Association.

The lectures will be held at 7:30 p.m., beginning Monday, Sept. 27, in the Upland High School Library, 565 W. 11th St., and continuing on the three succeeding Monday evenings.

Kenneth Bromage, director of Verdemont Boys' Ranch, is the first speaker for the series. He has been with the San Bernardino County Probation Department for the past 12 years. He has served as a probation officer in the West End, and as a senior counselor at Juvenile Hall.

In 1958, he opened the West End Office of the Probation Department, later returned to San Bernardino to supervise the boys' section of the Probation Department. He has been director of Verdemont Boys' Ranch for five years.

Bromage first became interested in working with youth when, during his Army service, he was assigned to the relocation of Hitler Youth.

Bromage's college background includes undergraduate work at Boston University. He is a graduate of Pomona College with a B.A. in sociology and psychology. His graduate work was at Claremont Graduate School.

Bromage is a member of the speakers' bureau of the San Bernardino County Council of Community Services. He has been active in Scouting for several years as an institutional representative for an Explorers' group and cub master. He is a vice president of the West End Mental Hygiene Association.

The educational programs have been planned especially for parents whose children are approaching adolescence, so they may know what to expect, and parents whose children are already into adolescence.

Teachers, counselors, social workers, probation and police officers and any others who deal with adolescents also will find the series valuable.

Each lecture will be followed with small discussion groups, led by members of the Association whose professions are in related fields.

A donation of 50 cents will be accepted at each session to meet expenses for the series.

The West End Mental Hygiene Association is sponsoring this educational series in meeting its purposes of attempting to "further mental and emotional well being and encourage thought and awareness of human behavior."

Edison Firm Votes Another Stock Dividend

Southern California Edison Co.'s board of directors voted this week to raise the utility's quarterly common stock dividend from 30 to 31 1/4 cents — the fourth increase in four years.

Board Chairman Harold Quinton announced that the increased dividend is equivalent to a change from $1.20 to $1.25 per share on an annual basis.

The third-quarter dividend will be paid Oct. 31 to stockholders of record Oct. 5, Quinton said.

He pointed out that Edison's dividend level has been increased 56 per cent since 1958, when it was 80 cents on an annual basis, adjusted for the company's three-for-one stock split effected in 1962.

Last year's increase, which also went into effect in October, was from 26 1/4 to 30 cents per quarter, he noted.

"MITE HAUNTED"
Huge Colonial style home, seven gables, two story southern with veranda porch, extending nearly all around the house, even balcony for the upstairs bedrms. Lots of big rooms, all seams solid as a rock. As a matter of fact, there is a basement, and the walls are all rock. Winding staircase upstairs; we could find only 1 bathroom, but we understand that there is another in the barn. We did not go that far. The lot, 150x150, is covered with very large trees, and various other forms of vegetation. It's fenced with a high chain link, and fencing and barbed wire on the top, so be sure the salesman remembers the key.

High School Board Makes Move To End 8-Week-Old MHS Strike

A frustrating strike at the Montclair High School addition site was eight weeks old Tuesday and the Board of Chaffey Union High School District, realizing how urgently the facilities will be needed next year, was at patience's end.

At a meeting of the Board Monday evening, R. P. Bidney, general contractor on the big job, said he had been assured workers would return to the project Tuesday. But he was wrong — the picket line continued to prevail.

The Trustees told Bidney and his lawyer, Hugh Friel, they could have the remainder of this week to negotiate with the electrical unions involved in a jurisdictional dispute. Then, said Paul Cushing, serving as chairman in the absence of Ben Allen, "We can't wait any longer."

Bidney informed the Board that spokesmen for Local 477 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (AFL-CIO) had insisted they were striking against the electrical subcontractor, Ben J. Hughes, a member of the Brotherhood of International Workers, because he wasn't paying prevailing union wages.

But, said Bidney, it is his belief that Hughes — who had done good work and was ahead of schedule when the strike began July 27 — was paying his men at the current wage scale.

Director of Facilities James Clark pointed out that the original complaints against Hughes were leveled by IBEW people who worked for the BIW subcontractor at the outset of the project.

"There's no use beating around the bush," Bidney declared. "The AFL-CIO wants all parts of the job. It's illegal —and it's the little man who suffers."

On a strong motion by Cushing, following a "call their hand" suggested by Supt. Allan Smith, the Board voted to obtain payroll records from Hughes — to verify his wage-scale claims — and then ask IBEW representatives to attend a meeting involving both sides in the matter.

The Trustees adjourned their session until 7:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 27, when they hope to resolve the strike differences. Meanwhile, Clark will consult with the County Counsel's Office — "to make sure of our ground" and try to have legal representation for the Board at the meeting.

If Hughes' point has been proved and the IBEW fails to appear or still refuses to back down, Bidney pledged to do what he feels reluctant to do— "oust a good subcontractor and hire a new one to get the job done."

Earlier, the general contractor had said he felt "pretty sure" work would be resumed Tuesday because new gates had been established at the site. This move was necessary because a Hughes employee had gone through the main gate, thus removing a secondary boycott situation and making the entire project a primary strike area.

Bidney said he had filed an action with the National Labor Relations Board, which apparently has found no infringement of the law to date. However, he pointed out that the pickets are either picketing by an honest mistake, regarding Hughes' pay, "or not in good faith."

Clark reported o the B[illegible] that the situation this week at the Upland High School addition project is just the opposite from MHS — "it's very satisfactory." The auditorium is "on schedule," with structural steel in place and lower sur[illegible]ar walls being formed. [illegible]e English area is at the [illegible]me point. "And they're ready to raise the beams for the locker rooms," he concluded.

Business Mgr. Milo Thomas presented the Board with a comprehensive enrollment report which included totals for the end of the first week of school last Friday. It revealed 8,699 students attending the four District high schools—an increase of 440, or 5.33 per cent, over the same day last year.

Based on anticipated drop-outs, Thomas pointed out, Alta Loma with 1,103 enrolled was 36 over the 1964 projection, Cha[illegible]y with 3,841 was 63 over, Montclair with 1,833 was 12 under and Upland with 1,922 was 93 over.

However, the business manager explained that the District also projects on population estimates — and, in this category, it is in good shape, even with enrollment peaks figured about mid-October.

Based on population, Upland is expected to hit a high of 1,925, Montclair a total of 1,991 and Alta Loma a peak of 1,132.

In other action Monday, the Trustees:

* Approved unanimously a motion by Richard Allred that the Board of Supervisors be requested to advance, or loan, the District a sum of $800,000, to be used to meet October and November obligations and to be repaid after local tax monies become available in December and January.

* Endorsed another Allred motion that the UHS Stadium be made available free of charge Sunday, Oct. 24, to the City of Upland for its fund-raising Youth Music Festival.

League Greets New Conductor

HERBERT WEISKOPF

A formal salute will be given Herbert Weiskopf by the members of the West End Symphony League at a reception to be held from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 26 at the Ontario home of Dr. and Mrs. Simon Klitenic. The reception will officially welcome Weiskopf to his new post as conductor of the West End Symphony Orchestra.

Mrs. Sydney Shaner, invitations chairman, reveals that the guest list will include members of the orchestra, the West End Symphony Association, as well as the Symphony League. Decorations will be carried out in a fall theme, highlighted by floral and fruit arrangements under the direction of Mrs. Florence Thompson.

Reception chairman Mrs. Simon Klitenic indicates that the guests will be served canapes and a light fruit punch. Officers of the Symphony League will compose a receiving line to greet guests upon their arrival.

Serving in the receiving line will be Mrs. L. L. Young, president; Mrs. Sydney Shaner, first vice-president; Mrs. Francis Fehlman, second vice-president; Mrs. Olaf Snyder, recording secretary; Mrs. Samuel Luginsky, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. C. O. Kissick, treasurer.

The resumption of concerts in November will mark the fourth season for the West End Symphony Orchestra. Weiskopf, having conducted symphony and opera in Europe as well as in the United States, should prove a valuable addition to the local orchestra, according to Mrs. William Barna, board member.

Weiskopf first studied with Lutter, a pianist-disciple of Liszt. He pursued further musical studies at conservatories in Leipzig, Frankfurt and the University of Vienna.

From 1928 he filled consecutive positions as conductor with many state and municipal orchestras and opera houses in Europe. After coming to the United States in 1939, Weiskopf conducted the Philharmonic Orchestra in St. Louis, also the St. Louis Little Symphony. He has also conducted the Las Vegas Opera Company and directed the Symphony and Opera Department of the Los Angeles Conservatory.

In the past ten years he has served as conductor of the Santa Barbara Symphony, organized the Weiskopf Opera Workshop, and since 1959 has been Music Director of the Beverly Hills Symphony Orchestra.

The reception honoring Weiskopf and his wife, mezzo soprano, Wanda Karos, will mark the opening of a new season of activities for the West End Symphony League.

Ways and Means co-chairmen, Mrs. Barry Brandt and Mrs. Melvin Marks are busy setting plans for a fashion show and luncheon at the Walnut Country Club. The fashion show, slated for early December, will feature fashions by Blackwell of Beverly Hills and Sportswear by Gino. Fashion co-ordinator is Mrs. Allen A. Magdovitz. Chamber music will be provided at the event by members of the orchestra.

The League's annual round robin bridge tournament is scheduled to begin in October and a "Musical Evening" spotlighting a well-known musical personality will brighten up mid-winter. The membership tea will be held in May.

'Fun, Food, Fellowship'

The annual "Get Acquainted Picnic," sponsored by the Parent Faculty Forum of Foothill Knolls Elementary School, will be held at Upland Memorial Park from 5 to 7 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 28.

Bring dinner for your family, and the PFF will serve coffee and root beer. They will also have ice cream for sale, and there will be games after dinner for the active.

Everyone come for an evening of "Fun, Food, and Fellowship" with the teachers, staff and other parents of Foothill Knolls Elementary School.

FREDERICK SCHNEIDER

Fifth Sergeant Earns Stripes With Police

A 35-year-old detective who joined the Upland Police Department in 1958 was promoted this week to the rank of sergeant, effective Oct. 1.

Chief John Wessely announced that Frederick Schneider earned his new patrol division position as a result of a recent competitive examination. It became available following approval of the City's budget and raised the force's number of sergeants to five.

Wessely said Schneider will undergo an 80-hour supervisory courseat the Riverside Sheriff's Training Center. Half of the cost will be met by the Peace Officers' Standard Training Program, which earmarks a certain amount of money from certain fines for this purpose.

Schneider made detective in Aug. 1963 after another competitive exam. His promotion this week will leave a vacancy in the Detective Bureau, which Wessely said is to be filled soon through examination means.

The chief pointed out that the new sergeant will relieve a more experienced sergeant, who now will concentrate on plans, training and research.

Schneider's home is located at 441 W. Arrow Hwy., where he lives with his wife, Regina, and their three youngsters.

Bar Owner Turns To Equipment

Well-acquainted with West End taverns — and their daily needs — Bill Stallcup has taken over the ownership of Upland Restaurant & Bar Equipment Co., 140 S. Euclid Ave.

County To Study City Request For Full Foothill Beautification

SAN BERNARDINO (CNS) A new County study of Foothill Blvd., from the City limits of Upland west to the County line, was ordered Sept. 13 by the County Board of Supervisors.

The study is to determine what action the County can take on a request from Upland for a plan for frontage roads on both sides of Foothill, in line with the improvement of the thoroughfare now going on within the City.

Supervisor Daniel Mikesell made the request for the study, following a plea to the Board from James Christensen, Upland Council member.

Neil G. Pfulb, County planning director, said a previous study recommended no action because of the structures in the right-of-way areas which would have to be obtained.

Christensen declared there are 26 buildings in the right-of-way, but that at least one is being removed by Upland acquiring a local water company.

The Planning Commission will hold a public hearing in late October on the proposal to require frontage roads along Foothill, Pfulb said.

He added that his department and the highway department would confer in the meantime to establish a proposed right-of-way depth for the proposed frontage roads.

Cucamonga P.O. To Be Built By April, 1966

Construction will begin early next month on the $135,300 Cucamonga Post Office and the facility at the northeast corner of Klusman Rd. and Estacia Ct. should be ready for occupancy by April of next year.

In a telephone call recently to THE NEWS, Congressman Ken Dyal reported that the successful, low bidder among some 15 contractors was Thomas Carnesi, 1604 N. Palm Ave., Upland. Carnesi will build the Cucamonga Post Office and then lease it to the U.S. Post Office Department.

According to the Congressman, the lease will be for a price of $12,400 per year for the next decade, with four five - year options for renewal.

Dyal told THE NEWS that the modern structure will contain 7,284 square feet, with a loading dock of 795 square feet and a "maneuvering area" of 13,912 square feet.

The new postal facility will be situated on property now owned by the Cucamonga County Water District, which has plans to rebuild its own central offices on the same site.

The old postal building, located on Archibald Ave., has been razed by the County for road-widening purposes. From now until the new Post Office is constructed, Cucamonga Postmaster Anton Blatnick will continue to do business in "temporary" headquarters at Sweeten Hall, San Bernardino Rd. at Hellman Ave.

Nuptial Mass Unites Couple

MR. AND MRS. RUDOLPH D. VAN MIL

Miss Rosemarie Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Anderson of Upland, and Rudolph D. Van Mil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Van Mil of Ontario, were united in a Nuptial Mass by Father Joseph Mackey at the Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church in Montclair.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father before approximately 150 guests, wore a Chantilly lace over tulle gown with long tapered sleeves and square scalloped neck and full length hoop skirt. A double crown of aurora borealis held the floor length tulle veil. She carried a large mint green orchid surrounded by white stephanotis, elegance and ivy carried cascade style on a prayerbook.

Mrs. Gary Behunin of Upland, sister of the groom, served as matron of honor. Mrs. David Smith of Pomona and Mrs. Larry Graves of Ventura were bridesmaids and Bonita and Donna Anderson, sisters of the bride were junior bridesmaids. All of the ladies wore long green gowns of shear over taffeta with rounded necklines coming to a V in the back, accented by a bow with two floor length streamers. The matron of honor carried a cascade of white elegance, green carnations and ivy trimmed in white. The other honor attendants carried cascades of white and green carnations.

Jeanne Meevis of Ontario, cousin of the groom, was flower girl, her dress matched the other attendants.

Gary Behunin of Upland served as best man for his brother-in-law. Ushers were Larry Graves of Ventura, brother-in-law of the groom, and Robert Anderson of Upland, brother of the bride.

Billy and Clifford Simmons served as altar boys.

The church was decorated with white glads and mint green and white pom-pon mums.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Elks Clubhouse in Ontario. The five tier wedding cake was cut and served by Miss Margie Rollman, Mrs. Jerry Peairs and Mrs. Reeve Warren.

A buffet supper for the newlyweds and friends and relatives followed the reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Van Mil, an appliance repairman, was graduated in 1960 from Chaffey High School. In April of this year he completed three years of service in the Army, which included a year in Viet Nam.

The bride, a 1960 graduate of Montclair High School, is associated with General Dynamics/Pomona.

Following a wedding trip to Carmel, Yosemite and Sequoia the newlyweds are now at home in Montclair.

Army Boasts New Exhibit At LA Fair

A brand-new exhibit on the U.S. Army's newest fast-moving, hard-hitting combat unit —the 1st Cavalry Division (Airmobile) — has brought "Sky Trooper" story to Pomona Valley.

Called THE AIRMOBILE SOLDIER, the display is located at Building 8A-LA County Fairgrounds during its 17 day Pomona appearance.

An eight-minute color motion picture highlights one part of the six-section exhibit, showing many of the means and methods of modern Army mobility. Entitled "Army on the Move," the movie was shot on the testing grounds where the new airmobile soldier's ground and air vehicles proved their capabilities.

A narrated color slide presentation illustrates the "fly in-hit hard-fly out" capability of heli-borne "Sky Troopers" — a capability of fast, flexible maneuver and firepower no other army possesses today.

Photo-artwork and text in other areas of the exhibit depict the organizational make-up of the 1st Cavalry Division (Airmobile), and trace its preparations for deployment to Vietnam.

Senator Nisbet Reports . . .

Time Of Decision Upon Legislators As They Tackle Reapportionment

By EUGENE NISBET
State Senator
San Bernardino County

The time of decision is upon us legislators, so far as reapportionment of both our houses is concerned.

Our State Supreme Court acted with unexpected speed to instruct us to redistrict by Dec? 9 or face the alternative of a mandatory imposition of the court's own plan on our legislative formation.

The Governor quickly stated that he would issue a proclamation calling us into special session Monday to deal with this, and perhaps other problems. So, as you read this, we will be back in Sacramento for the third 1965 session. Those representing all sides of the controversy are confident that we will be able to come up with an acceptable answer.

The broad purpose of the court's decision, to redistrict the Legislature as nearly as possible on a population basis, created no great surprise. But what did cause comment and criticism was the court's alternative plan, to go into effect if for any reason we fail to act by the deadline.

The inclusion in the plan of multi-member districts for both the Senate and the Assembly, in which the members would be elected at large, caused most of the unfavorable reaction.

No change in the present number of legislators, 120 would be made by the court plan. It would give 23 Senate seats to the southern part of the State, and 17 to the northern section. The existing division gives nine seats to the south, 31 to the north.

Under the plan, Los Angeles County would be entitled to 15 seats and would share a 16th with Ventura County. Orange and San Bernardino would together have three seats. San Diego would have three by itself. Riverside and Imperial Counties would share a senator.

In the north, 26 counties would be consolidated into two huge senatorial districts of 13 counties each, but each with only one seat. Counties in the first would be Del Norte, Mendocino, Lake, Humboldt, Siskiyou, Trinity, Shasta, Tehama, Modoc, Lassen, Plumas, Sierra and Glenn, to give one example of the consolidations which would be involved.

To be included in proposed multi-seat Senate districts, for example, would be Butte, Colusa, Sacramento, Solano, Sutter and Yolo Counties, with two seats between them; Alameda and Contra Costa, with three; and San Francisco by itself, with two.

New Assembly districts would be constructed along the same lines as those for the Senate under the court plan. Eleven multi-seat districts would be established, ranging from one including Marin, Sonoma and Napa counties with two seats, to Orange and San Bernardino with six. Population in the various districts would vary from a low of 168,397 to a high of 222, 194, or 1 to 1.32. Existing Assembly districts range from 72,105 (Imperial County) to 305,191 (Riverside) or a ratio of 1 to 4.23.

Leaders of both houses attacked the court device of elections at large within multi-member districts, as did the Governor in declaring that he will call the special session. The Assembly Speaker commented on the "staggering cost" of campaigning in large districts, and called the at-large plan "bad politics for both parties and bad government for the people."

The Senate president pro tem said the fact that the Assembly is also under court order to redistrict means a better chance to negotiate needed changes than was the case when only the Senate was under the gun to redistrict.

Volunteers Now Badly Needed For Cancer Dressings Station

Members of the Memorial Cancer Dressings Stations are volunteers who meet together to make dressings that are to be distributed by the American Cancer Society.

Sponsored by the California Grand Chapter of the order of Eastern Star, this is a statewide effort. The Upland station area includes the communities of Chino, Ontario, Pomona, Claremont, Montclair and mcucamonga.

New volunteers are welcome and needed to help supply the increased demand for dressings.

Materials used are cello cotton and gauze; also clean, used, white sheets are in demand for making bed pads and for packaging.

The Upland station meets on the first Tuesday of each month in the dining hall of the Masonic Temple, 611 N. 3rd Ave., Upland. The hours are optional - 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p. m. Atthe noon hour, time is given for a sack lunch with coffee, tea and dessert furnished.

Further information may be obtained by calling 982-6003 or 982-2677.

Economists To Potluck

The first meeting of the Citrus District of the California Home Economics Association will be a "Food-Gab Fest" potluck dinner at Mrs. Lorraine Quarves, 5763 N. Magnolia, Rialto, at 6:15 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 23. All Citrus members, their friends, and prospective members are welcome to attend.

Bring a favorite dish, table service and ideas to meet old friends and make new ones at a patio party. The American Home Economics Association Convention report will be given by Mrs. Eleanor Snedden, Citrus president, and the 1965-66 program will be discussed and presented by Mrs. Lorraine Quarve, president-elect. Plan to attend and bring other interested home economists.

Funds Roll In With Trailers

There are now nearly 300,000 house trailers registered in California, State Controller Alan Cranston reported this past week.

This is more homes on wheels in California than there are people in Alaska.

It also means a total of $5,876,969 in trailer fees for California's counties for the first six months of 1965, Cranston said.

San Bernardino County has been sent a check for $352,299.94 as its share.

The fee on trailer homes, collected from trailers located in the County at the time of registration, is levied in lieu of property taxes.

The apportionment is sent to the County auditor, who divides it equally among the County, City (if any) and School District in which the trailer is registered.

Fees were collected on 299,590 trailers throughout California, 23,914 more than a year ago, Cranston said.

Most of the trailers are registered in Southern California. Los Angeles County leads with 83,000. Then come San Diego County with 24,000, Orange with 21,000, San Bernardino and Riverside each with 16,000, and Santa Clara with 12,000.

Suzuki is terribly well-built.
A scant seven moving parts in the efficient 2-stroke engine means fewer things to go wrong, easier repairs and maintenance, less expensive service.

Earmark $176,373 For Chaffey From Big State Bond Issue

State Treasurer Bert A. Betts this past week sold an $80 million California State Construction Bond issue which will make possible a $817,957 junior college expansion program in San Bernardino County, plus additions to virtually every one of the state colleges and campuses of the University of California.

The construction bond proceeds will provide partial financing for $21.6 million of junior college and $63 million of University of California building scheduled for the current fiscal year.

Proceeds from the $80 million construction issue will be divided approximately as follows: University of California, $44.5 million; State colleges, $10 million, and junior colleges, $8 million. The balance will go into construction of other State facilities.

At the same time, Betts sold $25 million of bonds for the State's new beach, park, recreation and historial facilities program. A high bid on the construction bonds was entered by a Bankers Trust-headed syndicate, with a net interest cost of 3.424 per cent.

The winning bid on the park bonds was entered by the same syndicate, at a net interest cost of 3.3598 per cent.

Sixty-five junior college districts will divide the $21.6 million scheduled for construction this year. In San Bernardino County, the Chaffey Junior College District will receive $176,373.

Commenting on the sale, Betts said:

"I would like to have seen a lower net interest cost than any we received today. However, all the bids were very close, and I feel they represent a realistic assessment of current market conditions for California bonds, considering our continued high volume of sales.

"Obviously, as I have stated many times before, the need is great to reduce this substantial volume of California State bonds."

Betts also expressed the appreciation of the State to Cincotta for providing a third bid, and said he would look forward to further interest by the firm in future bond sales.

County Commission Acts

Highway Work Ruins Dwelling So Second Dwelling Granted

SAN BERNARDINO (CNS) —A zoning variance to allow a second dwelling on an undersized lot in the North Etiwanda area was granted Thursday by the County Planning Commission, because highway work will take out the existing dwelling.

The applicant was Tillio Casaletti. The property involved, measuring 200 feet by 200 feet, is on the south side of Highland Ave., west of Etiwanda Ave. It is zoned for agriculture, with an acre required for a building site.

Neil G. Pfulb, County planning director, told Commissioners the property is occupied by a restaurant and the dwelling which must come down. He reminded Commissioners that in 1961 they had granted a variance to allow expansion of the restaurant.

There was no opposition to the variance, and the vote for approval was unanimous.

In another action affecting the same area, the Commission approved a zone change for two and half acres. The change will be from zoning for single family dwellings with an acre required for a building site to the same zoning with lots of 20,000 square feet to be allowed.

The property is on the south side of Hillside Ave., east of Carnelian Ave., in Alta Loma.

Pfulb explained the two and a half acres are being added to a subdivisin,on land owned by George Jackson. The County planner said when Jackson's subdivision map was filed a condition of approval was dedication of land for a flood control channel. This channel separates the two and a half acres from the parcel it was once part of, but it is adjacent to the subdivision property, Pfulb said.

The commission itself had initiated the hearing for the rezoning, because of the flood channel effect, so the vote of approval was without opposition.

Plans Completed For Colorful Grapes-Blessing

Plans for the Oct. 3 Blessing of the Grapes and Wine Festival"—one of the State's most colorful traditions held annually at Guasti in the heart of Southern California's winegrowing district — have been completed and information about the celebration is available at Cucamonga's Brookside Winery, it was announced this week by cellar host Ted Suiter.

Among highlights of the festival are harvest thanksgiving ceremonies at the picturesque San Secundo d'Asti chapel, vineyard and winery tours, an al fresco barbecue with complimentary wines, strolling musicians, wine tastings, lawn dancing, and "What's My Wine?" contest every hour on the hour with prizes for the winners.

The Sunday opens following 11 a.m. High Mass at the Guasti chapel when Father Emil Melee blesses the grape harvest and vineyards amid a procession of acolytes and colorfully-costumed Knights of Columbus.

Remainder of the day's events are held at the spacious Brookside Vineyard Co. grounds, where the lawns are tented and special facilities erected for the continuous events. Admission, entertainment and wines are free. The barbecue luncheon is $1.75 for adults and $1.25 for children. Proceeds go to the San Secundo d'Asti church.

Luncheon tickets must be purchased in advance. They, information about the event and plans for group tours from this area are available at Brookside's Winery No. 3, 11837 Foothill Blvd., Cucamonga, Suiter said.

Some Upland Areas Need Attention Same As 'Old Town'

On the heels of THE NEWS' exclusive pictorial-editorial report on ugly conditions in the "Old Town" section of Cucamonga three issues ago, Bert Kuehnle has come forth to note that "Upland has some areas which we can't write home about."

Specifically, Kuehnle told THE NEWS (and City Council at a recent meeting), the square block in which he resides — a stone's throw from downtown Upland—"is a mess" He would like a lot done about it.

"My block, bounded by 9th St. on the north, 8th Ave. on the west, 9th Ave. on the east and the Santa Fe railroad tracks on the south, is a disgrace," the irate homeowner declared. "I don't know what train passengers think of our supposedly fair City, but I'll bet it's not good."

Kuehnle, who keeps his property at 844 E. 9th St. as neat as a pin, took THE NEWS on a tour of his neighborhood, observing en route that 'it isn't even as bad as some other neighborhoods in town." He helped set up the photos which accompany this article.

Directly behind his home, and in back of a house which faces on 8th Ave., Kuehnle pointed with something less than pride to a makeshift carport "which was built in about four hours." He called it "ridiculous" to erect such a haphazard structure to house a $2,500 sedan.

Kuehnle said he can't do much about the rubbish, cactus and animals in the backyard, but he has done something about the carport. He has notified City officials, who have advised the owner he has 30 days in which to obtain a building permit and construct the carport properly—with paved floor, driveway and all the necessary trimmings.

Walking down the north-south alley between 8th and 9th Aves., which the escort described as "abandoned, according to the Fire Chief," it was evident that the weed-covered area is being used by various vehicles.

Also, it was observed that the alley not only has a fire hydrant along the way but also an uncovered, 12-inch water box hole. "I'll bet the City will be liable if anyone is injured here," Kuehnle commented.

Near the south end of the alley, unfortunately within view of the railroad tracks, an abundance of garbage was found in a vacant lot. A check with City Hall health authorities indicated the next-door family had been tossing it over the fence, then burning it once a week. That practice now has been stopped, the officials said.

Adjacent to the Santa Fe tracks, Kuehnle pointed to a large, weather-beaten metal structure which, with an equally shabby-looking metal fence, is being used as an auto storage site, and declared, "There's been a fire inside and pieces are falling off — and still the building isn't condemned."

Kuehnle also complained about no business license being obtained to operate the storage operation, but, at City Hall, THE NEWS learned that it wasn't necessary — the property leasee needed only an occupancy license in the industrial zone. A City spokesman said an application for additional use may be necessary, and thus the matter may come before Council for a legal interpretation of portions of the Municipal Code.

Kuehnle wandered out of his block for a few minutes, first to speak unkindly about the fence around an auto wrecking yard, just west of 8th Ave., which he called "structurally unsafe and not up to the required heighth of eight feet." He said it was another "bad sight" for passengers on trains traveling through Upland.

A fire, health and safety investigator for John Deere Tractors in Waterloo, Iowa, prior to his retirement and migration to this area, Kuehnle noted that the City finally is doing something about its property north of the auto

WELCOME TO UPLAND isn't proclaimed on any sign, but this scene at 8th Ave. is one of several which greets Santa Fe passengers as they whisk through the community. Some residents feel the fence should be heightened and brightened.

VIEW FROM SANTA FE MAIN LINE of the rear of block in which Bert Kuehnle lives in Upland hardly represents an appealing sight for travelers. Lumber and debris has been thrown behind wobbly metal building, while garbage is tossed casually over fence into vacant lot. Kuehnle doesn't feel burning the garbage once a week is the right answer.

MAKESHIFT CARPORT for $2,500 auto is another eyesore which has caused Bert Kuehnle to urge a complete facelitting for the square block in which he resides. His complaint about the carport has resulted in 30-day order from City that owner must obtain a building permit and construct the shelter in proper fashion.

Kirkland Presents Staff

The new Sycamore School in Upland was the setting for an organization meeting conducted by Mrs. Robert Murray, 5th District C.P.T.A. extension officer and Mrs. Fred Peterson, 5th District vice-president, on Sept. 16.

Ernest Kirkland, principal, led those assembled in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mrs. Boris Cherbak, 5th District teacher loan chairman and Foothill Council treasurer was the acting secretary.

Mrs. Briscoe Root, president of Foothill Council, welcomed the assembled and explained the purpose of Council and the contributing activites for an active PTA. Then introduced the following chairmen and officers from Council present.

Mrs. Jesse Wise, parliamentarian; Mrs. Cherbak; Mrs. Thomas Lees, hospitality; Mrs. Gordon Anderson, welfare, and Mrs. A. T. Arbezzi, publicity.

Kirkland presented his staff of teachers, secretaries, and custodians which were well represented. He pointed out the fact that PTA is the link between home and school. He feels strongly for the need to start one.

Mrs. Murray enumerated the policies, duties and aims of PTA carried out in the State and 5th District.

Many parents present had previous experience with PTA, and securing members on each committee was accomplished with ease, which are: Nominating, By-Laws, Charter Membership, and Hospitality.

The next meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 5 at the school.

Kirkland answered many important questions for parents present.

Mrs. Lees and Mrs. Arbezzi presided over the coffee table.

Foothill Council PTAers Meet

The first fall meeting of Foothill Council was held Thursday, Sept. 16, at the First Presbyterian Church in Upland with Mrs. Briscoe Root, president, presiding.

Mrs. Joe Voss, character and spiritual education chairman, gave the Thought for the Day — "Instructions for Planting a Profitable Garden."

Realizing a financial gain through checks received from Mrs. R. F. Hutton, Council motion picture and mass media chairman, from the sale of summer matinee show tickets were the following units: Alta Loma Junior High, Baldy View, Carnelian, Citrus, Cucamonga Central, Magnolia, Pioneer Junior High, and Valle Vista.

Vision screening for three-year olds was primary on the agenda for the morning session.

Many eye defects in children are detected annually in the school Vision Screening Program, but it is an outstanding deficiency in our current policies that such children are not found at a younger age.

While a child with an obvious eye problem should and can be examined at any age, screening to detect impaired vision is recommended at the age of three to four years. According to Dr. Mildred E. Scott, San Bernardino County Health Department, this is considered the ideal age for screening visual accuracy.

The 5th District C.P.T.A. has set up a program for the purpose of training volunteers for the vision screening process.

This training program will be held Sept. 23, from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., at the Ontario Elementary School District building, 950 W. D St., Ontario. Bring a sack lunch (sorry, no child care). For further information and reservations, please contact Council health chairman, Mrs. Richard Harrison at 982-0293.

The magazine chairman, Mrs. Gene Marshall, stressed the importance of the National and State PTA Magazine which can be obtained through the individual units or Council.

Mrs. John Yatsko, music chairman, informed the association that the music scholarship will continue. This undertaking made its bow last school year.

The Oak Glenn Conference will be held Sept. 30 and Oct. 1. Every phase of PTA will be discussed at that time and valuable information available.

The following workshops were conducted: Membership, Mrs. Merriman Hamblin; Hospitality and Room Representative, Mrs. Thomas Lees; Magazines, Mrs. Marshall; Unit president, Mrs. Root; and Publicity, Mrs. A. T. Arbezzi with the assistance of Mrs. Carolyn Chadwick.

Presiding over the coffee table were Mrs. J. W. Masters, president of the Alta Loma Junior High School unit and Mrs. G. R. Stansbury, president of the Carnelian unit with the assistance of Mrs. Leo Crokes, hospitality chairman and Mrs. Lees, treasurer.

SORORITY PLEDGE

Miss Paige Rasmussen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jack Rasmussen, 1616 N. Laurel Ave., Upland, one of 150 coeds who pledged sororities at the University of Puget Sound in Tacoma at the beginning of the fall semester, has gone Gamma Phi Beta.

Teepee Times Wins Award

Alta Loma High School's student newspaper, the Tepee Times, was awarded International Second Place in competition with members of Quill and Scroll, international journalistic honor society, for the 1964-65 school year.

Mrs. Beverly Barrett, adviser, said that six issues of the paper were sent to judges selected by the society, who graded them for content and style.

Upland High Booster Club Deserves Community Boost

We hear so often these days about adults' GREAT CONCERN over the future of our increasingly complex youngsters in this fast-paced age. And yet grownups are so busy with their own lives that all too few of them manage to find time to practice what they preach regarding our youth.

It is REFRESHINGLY HEARTWARMING, therefore, to note with pride the outstanding work being accomplished this Fall by a rejuvenated UPLAND HIGH BOOSTER CLUB. Thanks to much time and effort on the part of its 1965-66 leaders, aided wonderfully by UHS student leaders, the club already is assured of its most successful year.

* * *

Results achieved by the organization were somewhat erratic in the past. It was difficult to get an all-out membership campaign going. Apathy at Upland High athletic events was a discouraging thing. Some students turned out for most of the events, but adult support of the team usually was limited to some of the parents of participants.

MANY INTERESTED ADULTS, including a number off-campus as well as members of the UHS staff, have generated this year's remarkable rebirth. Two who deserve to be singled out for extraordinary enuthsiasm are William E. Walk Jr., president of the Upland High Booster Club, and Mrs. Fred W. Dischinger, the club's effervescent publicity chairman. Both no doubt would be devoted contributors to the cause, even if their sons were not standout musclemen at UHS.

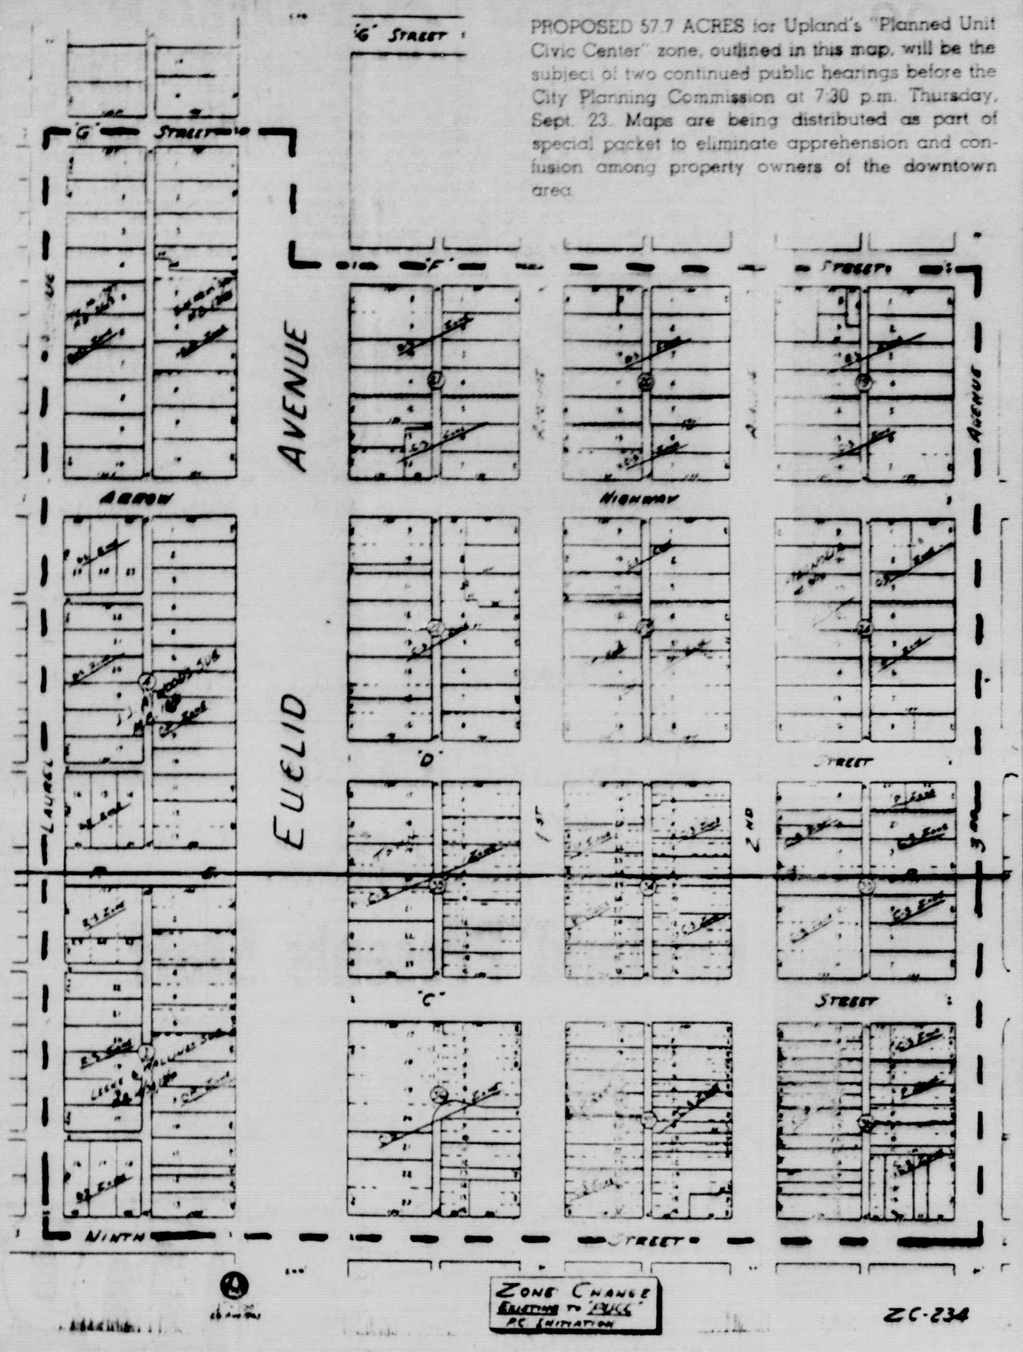

Under Walk's spirited supervision, the club has established A GOAL OF 500 MEMBERS — a total which should be topped well in advance of Friday night's opening football game against Azusa. It has received the 100 per cent backing of teachers at the school and, through active solicitation by student yell-and-song leaders, has signed up the majority of members of Upland's service organizations.

* * *

More than $1,100 in advertising money has been collected by the club, assuring UHS of its BIGGEST FOOTBALL PROGRAM in history. On top of that, Coach Jack Frost has announced plans for a re-run of game films each Monday evening to continue high interest in gridiron activities. He hasn't promised a winning team, but observers have tabbed UHS a real "dark horse" for the season ahead.

The club, with a theme of "Boosting and Boasting," has decided to sell memberships at all home contests in hopes of swelling its coffers — which supply equipment for needy athletes — and getting the Highlanders as "high" as possible for every competitive event. MORE IMPORTANTLY, the club has hopes of filling the stands with adult supporters at UHS encounters.

THE NEWS is impressed by the sincere efforts of the Upland High Booster Club and urges everyone concerned with the future of our teenagers to join the organization and attend as many events as possible. It is through such COMMUNITYWIDE ENDORSEMENT that our youth realize how much we really care — and it is only logical that they respond more determinedly as better citizens.

PROPOSED 57.7 ACRES for Upland's "Planned Unit Civic Center" zone, outlined in this map, will be the subject of two continued public hearings before the City Planning Commission at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 23. Maps are being distributed as part of special packet to eliminate apprehension and confusion among property owners of the downtown area.

Strange Items In Deposit Boxes

Falsies and Unpaid Tickets Banked For Safe-Keeping

Would the lady who left a black negligee in her safety deposit box kindly make a claim, lest it fall in the hands of the State Controller.

This is just one of the items that has been stored for safekeeping in safety deposit boxes of California banks.

Under the 1959 uniform disposition of unclaimed property act, however, banks are required to turn over property to the State Controller. The items in question are considered as abandoned seven years after the rental of the boxes becomes delinquent.

Some of the more unusual items reported by Bank of America, which has some 500,000 rented boxes in the State, included these:

Bottles of liquor, silver settings, lingerie, parking tickets (unpaid), coins, old teeth, inkjars, shoes, falsies, guns.

Under the law, the State Controller is empowered to authorize the destruction of worthless property and to auction off items of value. The owners of abandoned property sold by the Controller may claim the proceeds from the State.

It is doubtful, however, whether some abandoned items cleared out of bank storage will ever see the auction block — locks of hair, narcotics and sweepstake tickets.

OFF BEAT

With Ace Bushnell

Despite the Great Dow..pour of 1965, high hopes for the success of the Los Angeles County Fair were not washed away over the opening week end. Those responsible for keeping the world's largest county extravaganza bright and shiny were on the job early Sunday, making like swab-jockeys sweeping the deck clean.

The City of Upland's fine display, high and dry in the Exhibition Hall, proved a popular stop for visitors keeping out of the dampness. No wonder — it earned the sponsoring Chamber of Commerce a well-deserved second-place award among 28 competing municipalities and it earned plaudits for the Jaycees, who built the history-themed standout.

Our newspaper carriers also competed at the Fair and performed admirably, with one slight hitch. The Upland lad trying to see how fast he could fold and rubber-band 10 copies got fouled up because someone goofed and forgot to bring along copies of THE NEWS. He had to settle for a thicker sheet and wound up all thumbs. His time: 83 seconds vs. 27½ for the victor.

I took along my son for a morning of laughs, but made a BIG mistake. We ran out of money after losing at a few of the concession booths — BEFORE trying any of the rides DISASTER! If you're planning a day at the Fair with the young fry, check your wallet prior to setting forth.

* * *

Say, it looks as if the coming year is going to be a banner one for our public libraries in Upland and Cucamonga. After viewing a representative sampling of the new television entries, I am prepared to predict that people will be reading more while enjoying TV less.

To give you an idea how I feel about the whole situation, I don't understand why NBC's first week was so big it required eight days. That network, and the others as well, could have packed their worthy shows into two nights, at most.

Repetition seems to be the television trend for the 1965-66 season. If it's true that familiarity breeds contempt, the likes of "The Wackiest Ship in the Army," "Run For Your Life" and "The FBI" should be among many contemptible breeding grounds. The holdovers have perpetrated the trend, of course, what with "Dr. Kildare" now taking two nights to complete an operation and thrice-a-week "Peyton Place" making it necessary to consult a scorecard to tell the free-substitution players.

Don't get me wrong. I don't believe TV is all-bad, and I may change my opinion regarding some of the newcomers. To provide a clue, I'm the kind of nut who still watches nervously but enthusiastically as "The Fugitive" dashes on and still finds the Johnny Carson Show very funny. So far, I like the casual Dean Martin Show most of all from the fresh offerings.

* * *

The movie houses, along with the libraries, should benefit appreciably from a lackluster television fall. That is, many of them should register increased attendance figures—with the possible exception of smaller theatres, such as The Grove in Upland.

I am a devotee of The Grove, but I noticed recently, when I finally caught up with the magnificent "Mary Poppins," that you could count the popcorn-munchers on two hands and a foot. It would appear that our local emporium simply had its crack at the film too late.

If The Grove management somehow could nab the major flicks like "My Fair Lady" and "Von Ryan's Express," to name two we probably won't see in Upland soon, the box office no doubt would rise sharply—and motion picture fans could stop heading for Ontario and Pomona for first-run fare. Of course, theaters in those cities have managed an unfair power squeeze for years, making it virtually impossible for The Grove to get an even break.

* * *

This column hasn't stirred up much controversy of late, so I think maybe I ought to organize a Juan Marichal Fan Club. You know, sort of the rebel-with-a-cause approach.

Seriously, I witnessed Marichal's whacking of John Roseboro's head with a baseball bat —via the tube, natch—but I'm not one of the multitude who agrees the Giant pitcher deserved the fine and suspension he received, and perhaps more, while the Dodger catcher went unchastized.

I'm no advocate of bat-swinging at close range, but there are only two persons who know what role Roseboro played in stimulating the incident. Beyond that, how many of us know for certain how we might react under similar circumstances, if we thought we were being threatened and held a club in our hand?

Those who continue to admire Marichal as a gutty performer may be blessed with a touch of irony before September has waned. Despite his suspension, the San Francisco hurler may finish with more triumphs than Los Angeles' great Sandy Koufax, who lost a decision the day of the fateful clash.

BEFORE I FORGET

By MEL HODELL

Each week during the school year, the production facilities of the News and Tribune are devoted part of the time to the printing of college newspapers.

We have nothing to say about the content or the manner in which the paper appears—other than our specific job of setting the type, making up the pages, and running the press. In short—we act as the "printers."

* * *

I sure like having the college youngsters around our offices each week.

They bring their own brand of enthusiasm and vigor and their particular quest for knowledge and information. My chief hope is that some of this rubs off on us . . . for we must stay young in spirit if we are to cope with the problems of our world.

It's somewhat disconcerting to chat even briefly, with a youngster who has just finished a course in newspaper libel law, or some one pouring over an "advanced Greek" textbook. I find myself suddenly jerked awake to the vast amount of the world that swirls around me. It's an eye-opener for sure.

* * *

In all the years that we have been printing the student newspapers for Pomona College and Cal Poly, I have yet to find one instance where the youngsters are not well-behaved.

They are a distinct credit to their college, their parents, and themselves.

I think they are the finest examples of young people anyone could wish for on this earth.

And we don't treat them like little kids, either. We have a good understanding going — if they are late with their copy or jazz up the page schedule, they get socked with extra charges, though this rarely happens. And, for my part, I've taken my lumps occasionally when the reproduction wasn't just right or my crew turned in a sloppy job.

I think we respect each other as human beings. And from this we both aspire to maintain a dignified level in our relationships.

* * *

All of which brings me to the new College of the West which is taking over the campus facilities of the now-extinct Upland College.

Upland in particular—and Montclair, Cucamonga, and Ontario, as well—should welcome this new educational institution.

I certainly want to express publicly my support for their efforts in educating young people.

My three newspapers believe in education strongly—and will go down the long roads to back such insitutions as the College of the West.

I think that a new institution being located in this area deserves the maximum amount of support and backing from everyone.

The fruits that we reap—and the students reap—in the years to come will, in part, be determined by what we sow as each day goes by, from this day onward.

* * *

So as part of the re-dedication that takes place each fall toward education, I feel it is fitting that this year the symbol that should stand highest is the new College of the West.

Our young people are our finest. So I salute them all—with a special welcome and best wishes for the College of the West.

'MISS-SPELLING'

To The Editor

Come now!. . . After casting the first "stone" regarding spelling on your front page on Sept. 16, you sat down (perhaps wearily) in your composing room and on page four gave us an extra "I" in the word "MEETING".

Since none were missing from the signs shown on page one, I wondered if this might be a bonus, an example of how not to do it or a try to qualify for Operation "Head Start" yourselves.

In any event, my sympathy is with you in this coincidence-along with agreement that miss-spelled signs are doubly disgusting and, seriously, being a resident of Upland, a great deal of admiration for your continuing editorial integrity.

AMERICANS AWAKE!
To The Editor:

We are grateful for our wonderful police forces all over this great nation.

This cry of "police brutality" should make us up to the Communists who try to destroy our police force.

Let us not think we will enjoy their international police force. That will be brutality in the grossest form.

Americans awake, or loose your freedom!

Chaffey JC Seeks Employment Spots For Its Students

Employers are urged to notify the Chaffey College placement office of job openings for students.

The placement office reports that many students are available as qualified retail clerks, office personnel, counter girls, table waiters, fry cooks, day laborers and shop and service station workers.

About one half of the Chaffey College student population depends on part time and full time employment to cover costs of books, clothing and transportation.

Prospective employers are requested to list work opportunities for students with Mrs. Leonard S. Mather at YUkon 7-1737.

Three Recruits Begin Training In San Diego

Seaman Recruits Ronald L. Norton, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Norton, 1750 W. Foothill Blvd., Upland, and Louis K. Makall, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben L. Makall, of 2923 Valle Vista, and Thomas D. Jarvis, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Jarvis, 7710 Arroto Vista, both of Cucamonga, have begun nine weeks of Navy basic training at the U. S. Naval Training Center, San Diego.

In the first weeks of their naval service they will study military subjects and live and work under conditions similar to those they will encounter on shore station.

In making the transition from civilian to sailor they will be taught and supervised by experienced Navy petty officers. They will teach them the basic skills of seamanship as well as survival techniques, military drill and other basic subjects.

On completion of their recruit training they will be assigned to a school, shore station or ship, according to the results of their Navy classification tests, their own desires and the needs of the Navy.

Daily Report's Curtain Of Secrecy Hit By Chino Champion Publisher

(Editor's note —The following article by Al McCombs, editor and publisher of the Chino Champion, appeared as his page 1 column, "Rolltop Roundup," in last week's issue of the Champion. It is reprinted in full because of its unusual interest to persons in this area).

* * *

A curtain of secrecy was thrown around outbreaks of the Watt riots, a censorship which was aided by the Ontario Daily Report.

In an editorial last week the Daily Report admitted that they had withheld the story "until the tense situation eased", withholding the information from City residents "in order to avert apprehension and fear."

At least five cases of arson, one incident of possible arson, and a fire ignited by a Molotov cocktail took place during the mid-August period in Ontario. Fearing a possible outbreak of violence, the Ontario Fire Department was augmented by five civil defense trucks, police reserves were worked to capacity and fire patrols were stepped up. None of this was reported by the paper at the time.

An extraordinary meeting of the City Council was called for a briefing by the City Manager, and at one time State officials had assigned scores of state disaster trucks to the County area with command headquarters in Ontario, the paper said in its editorial a month later.

In Chino, no incidents were reported, although there were many rumors about damage in other cities, particularly Pomona. However, there were evidently no incidents there.

A Highway Patrolman was reported to have stopped a Negro in the act of trying to set fire to Klapp's Packing House market on Euclid Ave., north of Riverside Dr., closest incident to this community.

The shroud of secrecy thrown around the incidents and preparations in Ontario, including the part played by the paper, is considered unique for such occurrences.

Said one neighboring weekly editor: "I would think that the primary obligation of a newspaper is to print the news so that the community may know what is going on within its own boundaries. . .If this secretive line of reasoning were followed by other newspapers, then the Los Angeles Times and Herald-Examiner should not have printed anything about the riots—for this certainly would lead to additional unrest and rioting. Obviously this is an absurd viewpoint."

The action of the Daily Report is certainly an unusual one in the history and tradition of the press. I wonder if the same theory could not be used for the drunk driver, known to all editors, who pleads with the papers to leave the story of his arrest out so it won't kill his poor sick mother.

There is no doubt that Ontario officials took the newspaper into their confidence in asking cooperation to "kill" the story, and thus the newspaper at least knew what was going on behind closed doors at City Hall. But I wonder if the paper, in its position in the community, had the right to withhold such important news from the public, which alerted, might have been in a position to report and quash real trouble before it started.

This reminds me of the Police Chief in the town who asked me not to print the story of a crime "so whoever did it won't know we're after him."

A similar case happened when a young girl was kidnapped and the police withheld information on the suspect. It wasn't until days later that the suspect and the victim were found, after the item was finally printed and some vigilant citizen happened to spot them.

While this strays somewhat from the case of a whole community which may be on the verge of hysteria (according to the estimate of officials), it nevertheless points up that the best police force in the world is an informed public.

How quickly the first few weeks of school fly!

Now that most of the students have settled down to their schedules, there comes the rush for class changes, transfers and other urgent matters. The guidance center really has its hands full.

* * *

From what I understand, the UHS football team has been tabbed the "dark horse" of the San Antonio League. I certainly hope that the team has an outstanding season.

With such veterans as Jim Smith, Don Wilcox, Tom Shoji and Paul Morgan, the Highlanders are bound to have a successful campaign.

Rooter buses will transport fans to and from the game that night. Let's get out and support the team and help them get off to a successful start!

* * *

Students have hidden talents, as is the case of UHS junior Jess Foronda. Jess is studying the ancient Oriental art of karate and hopes to master it.

Why? He feels it is an excellent confidence-builder.

* * *

Students are again fortunate to have a student telephone directory available to them. This is possible through the efforts of Charles Dulaney, Associated Student Body treasurer.

This handbook readily gives the class, the name, address and telephone number of Upland Hi students.

Working with Charles have been John Baker, Cindy Fletcher and Becky Stewart. All have done an excellent job.

* * *

Game tags have a new look this year. Instead of the familiar strips of heavy white paper emblazoned with slogans, the new tags have two ribbons, one which says "come on Highlanders" and the other, pertaining to the Azusa game, "nihilate Azusa". This is the brainstorm idea of soph class president Dale Magruder.

Each new school year brings the drive for ASB cards and yearbook sales. You may not recognize the importance of a student body card until you realize how much money you are saving by purchasing one.

If you like to go to dances, football games and various other school-sponsored functions, then purchase an ASB card, for, without these ASB card sales, there would be no student activities. A $5 ASB card entitles you to $40 worth of benefits.

* * *

For those students who hope and would like to attend college, I suggest you stop by the college room located in the guidance center. Not only do the college handbooks help in your selection, but offer an outline of what courses to take through high school. This is especially helpful to freshmen.

Also offered is literature on vocations, accredited schools, scholarships and any other information that will aid you in planning your future.

According To CHP Statistics . . .

Three Of 40 Different Traffic Violations Caused 50%-Plus Of Labor Day Collisions

Forty different violations of traffic laws were noted in the traffic accidents investigated by the California Highway Patrol during the long Labor Day weekend, but only three of them accounted for more than half of the collisions.

"Speeding violations, failure to yield the right of way, and driving on the wrong side of the road were listed as the cause of 51.8 per cent of the accidents," CHP Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden reported today. "The pattern was about the same for all three categories—fatal, injury and property damage. On the other hand, investigating officers found that no violation occurred in only 4.7 per cent of the cases."

Although drivers who were arrested for being drunk were involved in only 4.6 per cent of the accidents, alcohol was a prominent factor in the total picture.

"The 'had been drinking' tag was placed on about 22 per cent of all the accidents, but in quite a few of them both drivers were so classified," Crittenden said. "Nearly one-third of the fatal accidents involved a drinking driver, but none involved more than one such driver."

Three fourths of the crashes occurred on two-lane undivided roadways and only 15 per cent occurred on full freeways. The evening hours from 6 until 11 accounted for one-third of the accidents.

"Long trips over the week end may not be as responsible for accidents as we have thought," Crittenden commented. "Some 55 per cent of the drivers involved resided in the county where the accident occurred, and the ratio was just as high for fatal accidents as it was for non-fatal ones."

Memorial Dedication Services Held

Youngster 'Too Good For Us, But Not Too Good For God!'

By BETTE MORGAN

"He was too good for us, but not too good for God!," Rt. Rev. Msgr. Michael J. Browne said, with deep compassion at solemn memorial dedication services for Edward Bain Moore, a former 7th grader in St. Joseph's Catholic School in Upland.

The mountain backdrop formed a perfect setting for the entire student body assembled in the quadrangle on Monday, Sept. 13. The flag furled gently in the breeze, as the formal dedication and blessing of an Italian imported Carrara marble image of St. Francis of Assi was performed by the parish pastor, Msgr. Browne. Assisting in the impressive ceremony and procession were Rev. John Horner and altar boys.

Young Edward did not complete his seventh grade year. He was stricken ill in March and after a brief illness died on April 2, 1965. The dedication of the shrine was to commemorate his 13th birthday.

The Moore's eldest son, George Emory, age 14, a graduate of St. Joseph's and a freshman at Aquinas High in San Bernardino, attended the program with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. George E. Moore, 1804 Merrill Ave., Fontana West Enders will recall George winning math honors for St. Joseph's eighth graders.

Exemplary boys from an exemplary family could best sum up the feelings of the entire school.

Mrs. Moore has transported her two fine sons more than 40 miles a day from Fontana to St. Joseph's Catholic School in Upland for a period of nine years. The unusual fact was that the Moore family was completely non-Catholic at the time of their kindergarten registration.

Mrs. Moore first became interested in the Catholic Faith through a home correspondence course. Not until 1957 did she personally request further instruction by Msgr. Browne.

It was not until Edward's death that both children were converted. Young George received his First Holy Communion at his brother's funeral Mass, while the entire student body sang the Mass of the Angels.

Msgr. Browne, masterfully and eloquently eulogized the short but meaningful life of Edward Bain Moore by admonishing the students to walk in his exemplary footsteps.

Sister Mary Laserian, his 7th grade teacher, said his classmates remarked, "You would have to know Eddie to realize that, of all his classmates, he was best prepared for his sudden departure." Sister added, "The legacy he left is ours!"

The Sister Superior Mary Celestine expressed her gratitude on behalf of the children and Sisters for the erection of the memorial shrine of St. Francis by the Moore family. She echoed the thoughts of all who knew and loved, EDWARD BAIN MOORE, that he truly emulated the many attributes of St. Francis.

An additional small plaque will hang in the 7th grade room at St. Joseph's with the engraved prayer of St. Francis which reads:

Lord make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me sow love,
Where there is injury, pardon,
Where there is doubt, faith,
Where there is despair, hope,
Where there is darkness, light,
Where there is sadness, joy,
Oh Divine Master grant that I may seek not so much to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; And it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.

ST. FRANCIS of Assisi, dedicated in memory of Edward Bain Moore.

MSGR. MICHAEL J. BROWNE dedicates statue at St. Joseph's.

Mt. Baldy Club Met

Mt. Baldy Community Club held their first meeting of the season at Chapman Ranch Sept. 14. A pot luck dinner and a balmy evening brought 40 members to the outdoor fireplace of Mrs. C. R. Chapman. Mrs. Chapman has been hostessing the opening September meetings for many years. This event renews old acquaintances and brings many new friendships into the club.

Plans for the annual Home Tour were discussed and dates are set for Dec. 8 and 9 of this year. Work parties for tour decorations and gift items have already begun under direction of chairman, Mrs. Larry Sos.

The evening was topped off with an exchange of "white elephant" hats, which put all members in a good frame of mind for the coming year.

A Fourth Grader Lauds Democracy

(Editor's note — When Edward Bain Moore was a fourth grade student at St. Joseph's Catholic School in Upland, he wrote the following essay on "Real Democracy" — in a remarkably legible and clear-thinking manner — and received an "A" for his work. It served as a true reflection of his youthful spirit.)

• • •

Democracy really means that all men are equal before God.

Every man is God's child, and must be treated with respect. No man should be looked down upon because he is poor or because he has to work hard with his hands. Every kind of work that is done for the good of all is fine and beautiful and holy before God.

Every man should receive enough money for his work to keep himself and his family in decent comfort. No one should have more than he can use of land, or money or houses, or things .Nobody should be left without what he needs.

There is a democratic way of living and thinking, as well as voting. This is the kind of democracy that the Church teaches.

Some Upland Areas Much Like 'Old Town'

wrecking plant on 8th. Weeds and debris have been removed in recent weeks, he explained.

But the concerned homeowner wasn't happy about the many vehicles owned by City employees which are parked along 8th while the men are at work in the municipal maintenance yard.

"Their cars jam the street," he protested. "We must adhere to certain standards, so why shouldn't others? Why shouldn't the City rent one of these vacant lots and provide off-street parking for its people?"

It was obvious that parts of Upland are going to be more ship-shape in the future — or Bert Kuehnle will find out the reason they're not.

DILAPIDATED BUILDING is no place to house any business — even if it is merely a storage area for autos — in the opinion of aggravated resident Bert Kuehnle, shown pointing an accusing finger at 8th Ave. establishment. City now is studying Kuehnle's complaint about condition of the structure.

Enrollment Up 27%

Chaffey College has reported a 27 per cent increase in gross day enrollment over that of last year, but seasoned the statistics with a grain of salt.

Full-time and part-time enrollment in day classes at the Alta Loma campus is 3,312 compared to 2,610 of a year ago. Full-time day enrollment alone jumped ahead 30 per cent, with 2,802 students registered as against last year's 2,155.

Dean of admissions William Groneweg cautioned against any confusion of enrollment figures with net attendance figures. The college's actual student population will be announced early next month.

Evening division enrollment, which historically exceeds day enrollment, will be reported following final sign-ups at initial class sessions.

Cassell Awarded

MRS. RONALD SMITH

Susan M. Cassell of Upland received the Silver Medallion award for her exceptional work with a group of Junior Hi-Camp Fire Girls. Mrs. Ellson F. Smith, president of Camp Fire Girls Inc. made the presentations during the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Mt. San Antonio Council on Sept. 14.

A former Camp Fire Girl herself, Miss Cassell brought to her group personal experience in the program as well as her knowledge and skills as a professional occupational therapist.

While her group attended the child care course, she developed ideas and items which would be useful in entertaining small children at various ages.

She stimulated their interest in art by introducing reproductions of 35 masterpieces of painting after which the group set to work on do-it-yourself art working with chalk, crayons, tempera and other media. Another outgrowth of the art study was a Beaux Arts Masquerade which the girls attended in costumes inspired by the works of art. Decorations and entertainment were likewise geared to the theme of the art works.

The girls climaxed the year with an original, carefully cast, costumed and produced show titled "Footlight follies." The price of admission for the 100 guests invited was tinned food which was assembled for distribution among the needy.

Miss Cassell, like most leaders of Camp Fire Girls groups, is able to continue guiding them through high school graduation, during their membership in the Horizon Club. This program enables girls to enjoy and learn about co-ed activities, explore career opportunities and give skilled service in community projects.

Old Baldy Scout Leaders Conduct Two-Day Seminar

Twenty three Old Baldy Council Scouters participated in an instructors' seminar held at the Council's new camp property in the San Bernardino mountains the week end of Sept. 10-11, according to Joe Pestritto, training chairman.

Using the Hitchcock Ranch house in Holcomb Valley as headquarters for the two-day "train-the-trainers" program were Walter Sterk, conference chairman (Pomona); George Garrett (Chino), Bud Smith (Upland), Duane Brown (Pomona), Perry Westrope (Montclair) and George Van Tubergen, council adviser . . . all members of his staff.

Westrope, who planned and cooked all the meals for the training group, plus over 100 Order of the Arrow candidates and members, was assisted in his duties by Scoutmaster Al Bowen of Troop 301, five members of his senior patrol and Larry Loeweke, Troop 323.

The Order of the Arrow candidates, as part of their initiation into the Scouting Honor Camping Society, were occupied in numerous service projects such as cleaning fire breaks, cleaning out the barn and other chores which restored orderliness to the ranch grounds and out buildings.

Guy E. Reide, Scout executive, and Kersw Walters, council activities chairman, were present Sunday morning for special presentations.

The training men planned to meet again as a group in the council office Thursday, Sept. 30, in preparation for the fall Scouterversity, which will open in the Council Training Center, 120 W. San Jose, Claremont, on Thursday, Oct. 21, for all Cub Scout and Boy Scout leaders.
